ENEMY WITHDRAW IN ERITREA BUT THE BRITISH MUST NOT EXPECT EASY PASSAGE INTO ADDIS ABABA

Contact With Axis Forces On Cyreneica-Tripolitania Border

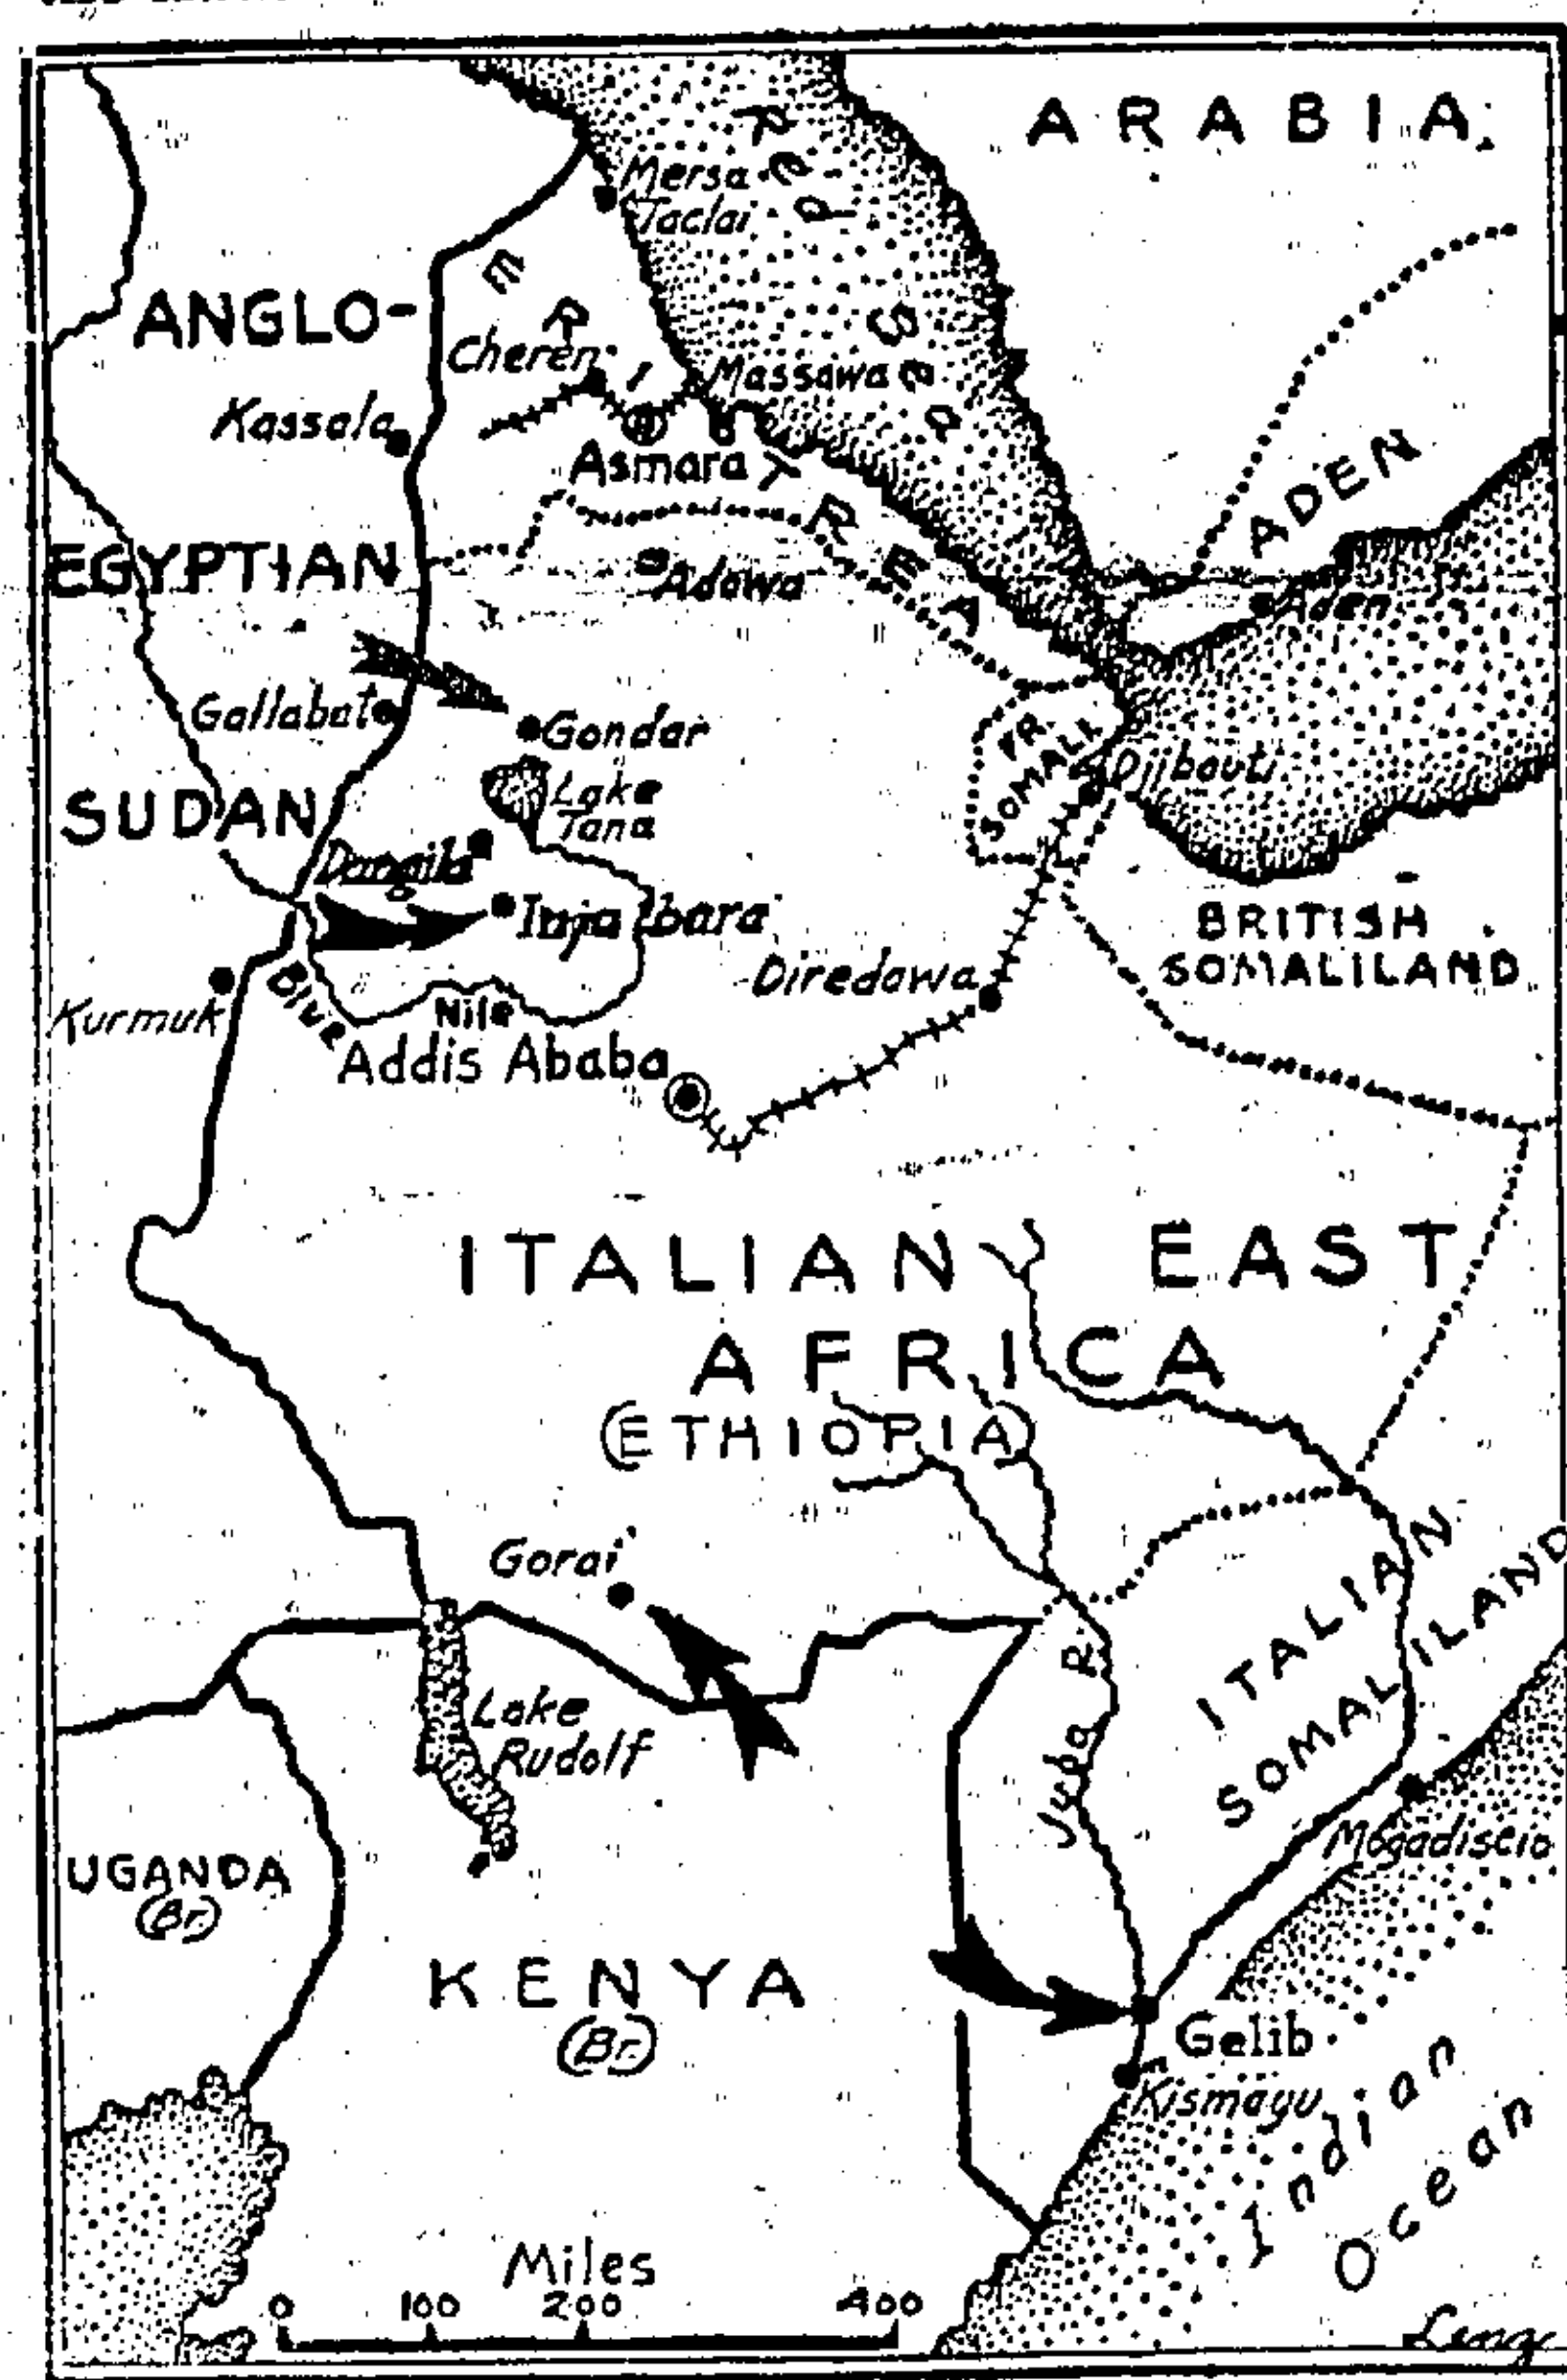

ENEMY FORCES ARE WITHDRAWING IN A SOUTH AND SOUTH-EAST DIRECTION IN ERITREA, STATES THE LATEST CAIRO COMMUNIQUE, QUOTED IN A LONDON MESSAGE. THE PORT OF MASSAWA IS STILL HELD BY THE ITALIANS BUT THEIR RETREAT WILL TAKE THE ENEMY AWAY FROM MASSAWA.

IN ABYSSINIA OPERATIONS ARE CONTINUING TO DEVELOP SUCCESSFULLY IN ALL AREAS.

From Nairobi comes the news that the South African Air Force has bombed a train on the Addis Ababa railway and also bombed and machine-gunned territory north of the river.

The communique adds, "WE MUST NOT EXPECT AN EASY PASSAGE INTO ADDIS ABABA."

The Italian communique mentions that fighting is continuing in the region of the Awash River.

In Libya, BRITISH ADVANCE UNITS HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT WITH AXIS FORCES ON THE BORDER OF CYRENEICA AND TRIPOLITANIA. This is at a spot 20 miles to the east of Agheila and 150 miles along the coast from Benghazi.

These operations are continuing and British advance elements are withdrawing. As far as the operations in Eritrea are concerned it is not known whether the Italian order to cease fire referred only to the town of Asmara itself or to the whole of Eritrea.

It is calculated that there are still some 40,000 ITALIAN AND COLONIAL TROOPS IN ERITREA and it is also stated that the Italian Commander in charge of the troops at Asmara had disappeared.

The first indication of the surrender of the town came in the early hours of Tuesday when at 5 o'clock in the morning two Italian officers came out of the town in a car bearing a white flag and wishing to be conducted to the British Commander as they wanted to intimate to him that Asmara had been declared an open city.

MANY AWARDS
Decorations for heroism and gallantry awarded to officers and men of General Wavell's Army in the Middle East between August and November last year before the drive towards North Africa began, occupy a full page of the supplement to the London Gazette issued on Tuesday night, states a London message.

The recipients include men from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, West Africa, the Gold Coast, Kenya, the Sudan and Cyprus.

The K.B.E. is awarded to Brigadier A. S. Allen, D.S.O., V.D., of the Australian Army.

The names of several Indian officers appear.
Seven doctors, one of the Indian Medical Service, are awarded the O.B.E. (Military division).

Accession Of King Peter

LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuters).—The Russian Ambassador, M. Ivan Matsky, was among diplomatic officials attending a thanksgiving service here today, in celebration of the accession of King Peter II of Yugoslavia to the Throne.

King George was represented by the Duke of Gloucester.

CROAT PARTICIPATION

VICHY, Apr. 2 (Reuters).—The form of Croat participation in the new Yugoslav Government is settled, according to a Belgrade despatch to the Vichy news agency.

LEAVING FIUME

An official Italian News Agency report states that women and children have begun to leave the port of Fiume in Yugoslavia, according to a London message.

The Yugoslav Minister to Germany, who was in Belgrade to report on the German reaction to the coup d'etat is now on his way back to Berlin.

ROME, Apr. 2 (Reuters).—Mr. Matsuka, was received by the Pope in the Vatican library this morning.

POLISH PREMIER IN OTTAWA

General Sikorski, the Polish Premier, has arrived in Ottawa on his way to Washington where he is to have important conferences with President Roosevelt, states a London message.

Sir Arthur Salter, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Shipping, has arrived in Canada on his way to Washington to discuss matters in connexion with shipping.

Surprise, Disappointment

LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuters).—SURPRISE AND DISAPPOINTMENT are expressed in authoritative British circles at the failure of the Vichy Government to implement its agreement of last September over the transfer of merchant vessels.

AT THE TIME of the collapse of France, some 250,000 tons of British and British chartered shipping found itself in French ports, and was prevented from leaving by the local authorities.

AS NONE OF these ships were released to Britain, steps were taken to detain a smaller amount of French shipping which then found itself in British ports.

LAST SEPTEMBER, an agreement was reached between London and Vichy whereby four of the French ships in British harbours were to be allowed to return to metropolitan France in exchange for four British or British chartered ships of a like aggregate tonnage then in French ports.

THE FRENCH SHIPS, filled with French nationals who wanted to be repatriated to France, were duly allowed to sail, but there has to date been no sign of any of the British vessels returning to Britain.

BATTLE OF MATAPAN

ONLY ONE BRITISH PLANE LOST

It is revealed in a London message that of the two British aircraft reported missing in the Battle of the Ionian Sea and now known as the Battle of the Matapan, one has returned safely.

The British loss, therefore, in this action was only one plane compared with the shattering blow inflicted on the Italians.

FOOLHARDY BRAVERY

ALEXANDRIA, Apr. 2 (Reuters).—How British bombers pressed home attacks on Signor Mussolini's battle fleet with almost foolhardy bravery was described by Rear-Admiral D. W. Boyd and Captain La Touche Bissett, of the aircraft-carrier Formidable, says Reuter's correspondent.

"I cannot over-emphasise the gallantry of the attacks made against the Italian battleship, Vittorio Veneto, in daylight by so few aircraft," Adm. Boyd told me.

ANOTHER RACKET EXPOSED:

DO "MAH-JONGG SCHOOLS" COME WITHIN COLONY'S GAMBLING ORDINANCE?

BY A STAFF REPORTER

"I cannot see any reason why the Police authorities should not take out a summons against the keeper of one of the numerous mah-jongg schools, and making it a test case, have this question settled once and for all," said a well-known local solicitor, when asked for his opinion as to whether a "MAH-JONGG SCHOOL" comes within the legal interpretation of "A COMMON GAMING HOUSE."

Although mah-jongg is allegedly a game of skill, the elements of chance, "or luck," in the drawings of right cards is so great as to make it a game of chance and skill. As a matter of fact, a mah-jongg player has to depend more on his luck than a player of "pai-kau," a game banned by law!

KEEPERS AND HIRELINGS

How are these mah-jongg establishments run? The keepers, under the delusion that by so doing they are keeping within the law, never take part in any game, although they may have one or more of their hirelings, masquerading as patrons, at some of the big-game tables or playing with any "pidgeon" that might be ready for plucking.

Each player is charged one per cent. of the stakes played for, per round—or, four per cent. for the complete game of four "winds" or rounds. (Tables are provided for $1 PER 1,000 UP TO $20 PER 1,000 IN STAKES). In a dollar game, each player has to pay four cents for the complete game, or 16 cents per table.

Those schools (what a travesty of the word "school") are kept open day and night. The public do not only have free access to these "schools," but are actually invited to enter by touts standing outside the doors!

"RECREATION"

On a visit to one of these establishments, a reporter of the Hongkong Daily Press found such a conglomeration of humanity as

NINE AXIS SHIPS BURNED AND SCUTTLED IN CENTRAL, SOUTH AMERICAN WATERS: 15 DETAINED

Crews Arrested At Tampico: Peru Officials Strand Freighter

NINE AXIS SHIPS, TOTALLING 44,500 TONS are reported to have been burned and scuttled in Central and South American waters, and 15 SHIPS, OF 88,400 TONS, are stated to have been taken into custody, according to an American correspondent's report, quoted in a London message.

MEXICAN MARINES TOOK POSSESSION OF THE GERMAN SHIP Hameln, 4,174 tons, and the Italian Giorgio Fassio, 6,735 tons, at Vera Cruz, says Reuter.

D.S.O. AWARDED TO YOUNGEST OFFICER

At a recent investiture at Buckingham Palace, the recipient was the youngest officer to receive the D.S.O., states a London message.

He was 21-year-old PILOT OFFICER ERIC LOCK, of the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, who was awarded the D.S.O., D.F.C. and bar.

His "bag" of enemy planes shot down were 22 confirmed and nine probable. He has been in hospital for the past three months with 15 leg wounds caused by Messerschmitt gunfire.

The 2,000-ton Italian Atlas was set on fire by the crew at Tampico and is expected to sink.

At the same port, the 9,600-ton German Orinoco is apparently getting up steam. The Italian Fede has also lit her furnaces.

The crews of several Axis ships were arrested at Tampico. At Quayaquil, Ecuador, a 1,100-ton German vessel was set on fire by the crew, and is now blocking the harbour.

Peruvian officials succeeded in stranding the German freighter Monserrate which, with the Leipzig, was set on fire by the crew after attempting to get away from Callao. The two vessels, laden with 7,000 tons of cotton, are still burning.

SEARCH FOR FREIGHTERS

Peruvian warplanes are assisting two warships in the search for Nazi freighters which slipped out of Callao harbour on Monday night without clearance papers.

The Peruvian Government has also cancelled the services of the Nazi air company Lufthansa and taken possession of its planes.

The United States Government will place 19 French ships in United States ports under surveillance, according to a high official of the Treasury.

THE CONTE VERDE

A Reuter report from Shanghai states that following the departure of the German freighter Ramses at the week-end, it is now reported that the Conte Verde, an 18,700-ton Italian liner, is also preparing to depart. It is rumoured that she would make a dash for Kobe, where she would be fitted out as a raider.

The Peruvian Government have forbidden the German News Agency Transocean, to operate in Peru, states an official Japanese report from Lima.

AT MOMENT'S NOTICE

According to a message from Sydney, Italian nationals in the United States have been told by Rome to be prepared to quit the country at a moment's notice.

LONDON, Apr. 2 (British Wireless).—Orders to the Stationery Office for the "Battle of Britain," an official account of last autumn's blitzkrieg over this country, are understood already to total 850,000. Sales are at 100,000 daily.

GERMAN LINER INTERCEPTED IN ESCAPE

An Italian destroyer, of 1,526 tons, has been attacked and sunk by R. A. F. reconnaissance planes in the Red Sea off the port of Massawa, according to a report from the Commander-in-Chief, East Indian Station, quoted in a London message.

Another report from the C-in-C states that a German merchant ship, Bertram Rickmers, 4,183 tons, was intercepted by H. M. S. Khandahar when endeavouring to escape from Massawa.

C-IN-C FAR EAST DUE HERE

MANILA, Apr. 2 (Reuters).—Air Chief Marshal Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, Commander-in-Chief in the Far East, arrived by plane from Singapore en route to Hongkong.

It is understood that his visit is unofficial, but he may probably have a private exchange of views with the United States service authorities.

He is scheduled to leave for Hongkong on Friday.

Sir Robert arrived at Cavite, states a London message, accompanied by Major-General Richard Dewing, Chief of Staff, Far East. At Batavia, Sir Robert had talks with Dutch officials before going on to Manila.

Yesterday, Sir Robert called on Admiral Thomas C. Hart, Commander-in-Chief of the U.S. Asiatic Fleet, and it is stated that they will discuss the entire range of defences in the Far East.

SIR CLARK KERR

CHUNGKING, Apr. 2 (Central).—Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, British Ambassador to China, yesterday left Shanghai for Singapore by steamer. After a brief stay in Singapore, he will come to Chungking.

Lady Clark Kerr did not accompany her husband when the British Ambassador left for Chungking on Tuesday, says Reuter. She is reported to leave for Chile shortly to visit her family.

Today's News Summary

IT IS POINTED out in London that an easy passage into Addis Ababa must not be expected. The enemy are withdrawing in two directions in Eritrea and it is now revealed that Asmara was declared an open town. Imperial forces came in contact with Axis units on the Cyreneica-Tripolitania border.

IN CONNEXION WITH the great British naval victory in the Battle of the Ionian Sea, the only loss sustained by Admiral Cunningham's forces was one plane. Of the two originally stated to be missing one has returned safely.

A WAVE OF SABOTAGE of Axis ships in American waters is revealed by the report that nine have been burned and scuttled in Central and South American waters. Several crews have been arrested.

WHEN THE R.A.F. raided Emden on Monday night they dropped a new type of bomb which, it is now revealed in London, has five times the explosive power of any previously dropped by British planes. FIVE GERMAN BOMBERS were shot down in raids over Britain on Tuesday night.

THREE DOUBLE KILLINGS FEATURE SAINTS-INDIAN PENNANT DECIDER CLASH BY "R.O.Y."

DESPITE THE INDIANS-ST JOSEPH'S CLASH BEING THE VIRTUAL DECIDING MATCH OF THE SENIOR DIVISION, a disappointing house turned out at the Kowloon Football Club last Sunday when these two squads battled to a 5-3 decision that went in favour of the latter.

In chasing up their victory, the Joltin' Joys pounded Indian hurler Kassa Nazarin for eleven safeties of which Jindoo Hussain's triple bagger was the only extra-base clout of the fracas. Hank All and Dave Leonard paced the batters with two apiece, the latter chasing three teammates across the pan with a rousing drive to left.

The Indians played better defensive ball than the winners and tallied their three runs on six singles of which A. R. "Huckley" Kitchell garnered two.

Three double killings were dished up during the course of the game, the Indians effecting two while the College glans made one.

The winners started scoring with a tally through Hank All in the first frame but the Indians replied with three markers in the first half of the third. Their lead was short-lived though, as George Souza, Hank All and Arthur Ozorio were chased across, the counting station by Dave Leonard's slashing drive to left that also nearly started a riot.

HEATED PROTEST

On the hit, Dave Leonard sped to second, overlooking the necessity of touching the initial sack, and without the Indians noticing this important omission. After considerable prompting from the stands, Nazarin tossed the pill to Romeo Hamet, for the latter to make the play at first base, upon which base umpire Nick Beltrao promptly called Dave Leonard "out". Dave Leonard's heated protest started a long discussion which ended in Dave being allowed to take first.

Whatever the merits of the decision, it didn't really make any difference as Dave became the second victim of a double-play in which brother Stan fled out to Hamet for the first errand. Frankie Gonzales tallied in the fourth to put St. Joseph's two runs in front, a lead that the Indians never looked like reducing.

EASY WIN FOR ACES

In the first game on the card, the Rambling Reds, with a scrub team, had no difficulty in downing the Filipino boys by 12 counters to 5, behind the indifferent, hurrying of Nick Beltrao, whose regular spot is first base.

Good defence held the losers to four hits, as the Aces garnered their winning count on twelve safeties that included doubles by Nick Beltrao and Caco Marques.

MAKESHIFT SQUAD

The Reclio boys took the field again in the second leg of their double header, this time against the Chinese Baseball Club who ran up a handy lead of 6-1 against another makeshift Reclio line-up.

Gerry Gosano, who took over the mound duty from Johnny Alvarez, Bertie Gosano and Johnny Fonseca arrived from Volunteer duties in time for the fifth frame and from then on the Chinese outfit were held scoreless. Try as they did, however, the Ramblers were unable to make up the lead, and the Chinese were out in front by a 6-3 count when the game ended, with the sacks loaded.

FLASHY DISPLAY

For the winners, Nip Lum was outstanding with the bickory stick, belting out two singles in four trips to the pan beside turning in a flashy display behind the plate. Denham Gray sacrificed speed for control and was still effective enough to hold the Reclio hitters to five scattered hits.

An entertaining feature of the game was Nip Lum's base stealing activities that resulted in his pilfering the home plate for the first tally of the match.

Nick Beltrao was in surprising good batting form for the losers, his two singles giving him a perfect 1,000 average.

SENIOR SOCCER LEAGUE

NAVY DEFEATED BY ROYAL SCOTS

After leading by one goal before the interval NAVY fell away badly in the second half, allowing ROYAL SCOTS to score three quick goals to win at Sookunpoo yesterday in the First Division of the League.

In the first half, Navy had full share of the play and after the forwards had indulged in some nice movements, HENDY ran through on his own to score the first goal. At this stage, the whole Navy team were playing grand football, the defence keeping the Scots forwards well in check, while the forwards were continually shooting.

In the second half, a great change came over the Scots' team, and after HOSSACK had equalised through a penalty, AULD added two quick goals, both of which were headed into the net.

Navy tried hard to reduce the arrears, but the stout defence of the Scots held them back.

ROYAL NAVY:—Giff, Roughley, O'Regan, Paul, Hazard, Layne, Wharmby, Le Page, Hendy, Barber and Hawkins.

ROYAL SCOTS:—Bankier; Nay-smith, Fraser, Adamson, Parnaby, Marshall, Hossack, James, Auld, Munro and Gilroy.

SAPPERS MAKE SURE

ROYAL ENGINEERS made sure of the championship in Second Division when they convincingly beat SING TAO by three goals to one at Sookunpoo yesterday.

Engineers had their defence to thank for keeping the nippy Chinese forwards from attacking, and as a result, Moxham, in goal, had little to do.

Fox opened the score for the Engineers five minutes from the start and there was no further scoring. On resumption, the Engineers continually bombarded the Chinese goalmouth, and LI WAI-LAM scored while the opponents were appealing for off-side.

In a sporadic raid, the Chinese replied through TAM WOON-CHEUNG. A few minutes later BIRRELL crowned a good afternoon's work by scoring a well-placed goal.

ROYAL ENGINEERS:—Moxham; Palmer, Tam Chung-pak; Chan Ying-kuen, Shaw, Taylor; Li Wai-lam, Birrell, Fox, Felham, F. Jones.

SING TAO:—Yee U-tak; Kwok Ping-tong, Richard King; Shin Yau-sai; Lau Tin-sun, Tam Chun-fai; Chu Kam-sing, Shiu Din-ilm; Fung Kwai-shing, Tam Moon-cheung, Cheong Moon-wing.

R.A.F. DRAW

The R.A.F. dropped a valuable point in their race for Third Division championship honours, when they were held to a draw by 36th R.A. yesterday at the Club ground, each side scoring once.

MATCHES POSTPONED

The First Division match between Club and Kwong Wah was postponed, while the Third Division match between R.E. and 24th R.A. was also postponed owing to the latter's participation in athletics.

INTERPORT MATCH

At the meeting of the League Management Committee held yesterday evening it was decided to send invitations to 15 players to participate in the annual Interport soccer match with Macao which is to take place in the Portuguese Colony on April 20.

The following players were invited:—

Fowler, Hiertzen, Blackburn, Pope, Howlett, Ferrier, Maxwell, Lapsley, Lee Wai-long (Capt.), Cheong Wing-choi, Tsang Chung-wan, Fung King-cheong, Soong Ling-sing, Hsu King-sing and Hau Ching-to.

Mr. W. B. Hollands will act as manager.

Dates for the Senior Shield final and the third match in the Governor's Cup competition were fixed for Causeway Bay on Saturday, April 12, at 4 p.m., and Club

Bisley Meet Of H.K.R.A.

ROYAL MARINES WIN FALLING PLATE COMPETITION

The annual meeting of the Hongkong Rifle Association was continued yesterday morning, two events decided being the Falling Plate Competition and the Deliberate Competition.

Royal Marines, H.M.S. Tamar, winners also last year, beat "C" Company, 1st Middlesex Regt., in the final of the first mentioned event.

Sgt. Ghulam Mohammed (H.K. Police) and Mrs. Crofts (R.M.) tied for first in the Deliberate Competition and the tie will be shot off on "A" Range this morning at 9 a.m.

The Company Match was also started yesterday and will be continued this morning.

Middlesex "B" Company and Middlesex "D" Company will fire their Company Match Competition on A Range at 9 a.m. today, and Royal Scots "B" Company and Royal Scots Headquarters Company will fire off their Match in the same competition on the same range at 9.30 a.m.

PLATOON MATCH

The Platoon Match will start at 10 a.m., instead of at 9.30 a.m. as previously advertised, and all details will be half-an-hour later than originally shown.

PRACTICE AND POOL

The Practice and Pool Shoot will not take place from 9 to 9.30 a.m., but there will be practice and Pool Shooting from 2 to 2.30 p.m., immediately before the final of the Association Service Rifle Championship which will commence at 2.30 p.m.

RESULTS

The following were the prize winners yesterday in the Deliberate Competition:—1st Prize, Sgt. Ghulam Mohammed (H.K.P.) and Mrs. Crofts (R.M.); 3rd Pte. Coutts (2 R.S.); 4th CSM. Stanford (2 R.S.) and Sgt. Rushman (R.M.); 5th Sgt. Cole (R.M.); 7th Pte. McWilliams (2 R.S.); 8th Pte. Stewart (2 R.S.); 9th Sgt. Menhnick (R.M.) and Sgt. J. R. Wall (H.K.P.).

SPECIAL PRIZE LIST

1st Bms. Mlx (1st Mx.), 2nd Pte. Higgins (2 R.S.); 3rd Pte. Bellchambers (1st Mx.), 4th Pte. Ward (1st Mx.); 5th L/c. Quicken-don (1st Mx.), 6th L. A. C. Callaghan (R.A.F.), 7th Pte. Burke (1st Mx.), 8th L/c. Munchenbach (1st Mx.).

H.K.F.A. MEETING

The Hongkong Football Association will hold a Council meeting at the Association's office on Wednesday, at 5.30 p.m., when the annual Interport match between Hongkong and Macao will be discussed.

BURMA VISIT OFF

According to information received in the Colony, the Burma Chinese Football Team, which was to arrive here during Easter to play a series of games against local teams, are now unable to make the trip.

Mr. A. M. Hollands will be manager.

MASS PRODUCTION CHAMPIONS

New Idea Promoted By U.S. Lawn Tennis Association

Americans have a way all their own when it comes to encouraging the young ideas in sport. Lawn tennis particularly is noted for this and, as evidence of its reward, one has only to glance down their list of champions.

Hitherto a young player showing any promise was immediately taken in hand by the United States Lawn Tennis Association and afforded every facility to help him or her to become a champion. Now, the United States L.T.A. has widened its scope and is planning "mass production" of champions.

Thousands of boys and girls in every State will reap the benefits of lawn tennis under the latest scheme. Promising youngsters in 30 key cities have been formed into junior Davis Cup squads, each in the care of a local committee, and are coached in strokes and tactics and encouraged to conduct themselves as good sportsmen, both on and off the courts.

"Instead of concentrating on the development of one or two players and helping them to become such outstanding players that they will dominate all tournaments in which they compete," said Mr. Holcombe Ward, President of the United States L.T.A., "the U.S. L.T.A. has been trying to help several hundred boys on junior Davis Cup squads to be creditable representatives of the game."

CLINICS

"Junior Wightman Cup squads have been organised along similar lines for girls as part of the national development programme. Tennis clinics are being held for beginners and preparatory squads have been formed to carry on the elementary instruction given at the clinics."

"Amateur lawn tennis has never had so many promising boys and girls playing high-grade tennis in this country, the general average of play is higher than at any previous period in the history of the game," Mr. Ward declared.

The tennis clinics referred to above have been increased in number in the past year and they have proved to be one of the best methods of instructing young players.

The clinic provides boys and girls with free expert instruction in essential strokes, tactics and court manners, diagnose their faults and suggests corrective treatment.

AMERICAN THOROUGHNESS

Dr. William P. Jacobs, Chairman of the U.S. L.T.A. tennis clinic committee, reports widespread interest in the movement. A standard clinic at Presbyterian College, Clinton, South Carolina, gives a three-day course to 150 pupils at a time. There are talks and demonstrations, and films are shown. In addition local associations throughout the country organise clinics for one, two, three or more days.

Another instance of American thoroughness is illustrated by the fact that young players, after having been taught the fundamentals of the game, are now being trained as umpires. And youngsters who have played little tennis are encouraged to become court officials.

Several schools have been held, and boys who have attended them have served as umpires and linesmen in the American junior championships. The efficiency of these young officials has helped materially to make the tournament one of the outstanding events of the year.

ASMARA, CAPITAL OF ERITREA, IN HANDS OF BRITISH

Way Now Open For Drive On Port Of Massawa: Hundreds Of Prisoners Are Captured

CAIRO, April 2 (Reuter) — It is officially announced that Asmara, the capital of Eritrea, has been captured. Following the withdrawal from Dire Dawa the Italians in Eastern Abyssinia are not expected to offer strong resistance, until the British forces reach the Awash River, about 100 miles from Addis Ababa, stated a military spokesman last night. He added that nothing is noticeable of modern defences around Asmara.

A meeting of British and enemy forces in Libya, continued British advance in Eritrea with the capture of more prisoners, and rapid progress in Abyssinia are reported in a G.H.Q. communique. It says that advanced elements of our forces were on Monday in contact with enemy infantry and mechanised units in Mersa Brega area, Libya.

Despite the extensive demolition on the main road to Asmara, our advance in Eritrea continues. During the last 48 hours, a further 800 prisoners were taken, including another Brigade Commander.

Although communications in this area have been extensively damaged by the retreating Italian forces, our advance from Dire Dawa astride the railway and road to Addis Ababa is making rapid progress.

In all other sectors, the penetration into Southern Abyssinia is enlarging, particularly in the area north of Lake Rudolf.

RESOUNDING VICTORY
LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuter) — Asmara, the capital of Eritrea, has fallen. This success, which is likely to prove the beginning of the end of resistance in Eritrea, follows only five days' after the capture of Keren.

In that brief time, British and Indian forces, ably supported by the R.A.F., have pursued and dispersed the Italians over 75 miles to yesterday's new resounding victory.

The way is now open for the next drive against Massawa, Italy's last port on the Red Sea.

The speed of the advance takes additional credit from the fact that the fighting before Keren was of the most exhausting kind, leading to a climax of a fortnight's sustained attacks under the most difficult physical conditions of climate and terrain.

In their progress since Thursday, the British forces have had no easy task, being faced by a steep climb mainly through a defile.

THREAT TO MASSAWA
With the fall of Asmara, the problem confronting the Duke of Aosta respecting the safety of Italians, including women and children, daily becomes more difficult.

The possession of the Eritrean capital is not only a direct threat to Massawa, 75 miles away, but also promises finally to sever all communications between Abyssinia and Massawa, leaving the road to Assab the sole remaining link between Abyssinia and the Red Sea.

Asmara has 100,000 inhabitants, half of whom are Italians. It is 7,600 feet above sea level on a plateau.

R.A.F. COMMUNIQUE
CAIRO, Apr. 2 (Reuter) — Another heavy air raid on Tripoli

Anniversary Of R.A.F.

MAGNIFICENT WORK TRIBUTED

CAIRO, Apr. 2 (Reuter) — The important part played by the R.A.F. in British victories on land and sea in North Africa and the Mediterranean was emphasised by Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Longmore, Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief of the Middle East, broadcasting from here yesterday on the occasion of the 23rd Anniversary of the birth of the R.A.F.

He referred to the fact that over 1,000 aircraft had been destroyed in the Middle East and paid a great tribute to the magnificent defence of R.A.F. fighters in Malta, and the splendid work of R.A.F. aircraft allotted for sea and port reconnaissance in co-operation with the Navy.

Immediately before last week's naval victory, he added, R.A.F. sea reconnaissance aircraft located enemy forces and continued to report their movements.

ENEMY LOCATED
Acting on this information, R.A.F. bombers attacked, hit and crippled one, possibly two, of the cruisers and one of the destroyers, out of those finally disposed of by Admiral Cunningham.

Many of the bomber crews who participated in that operation were only a few weeks ago helping our Army in their Libyan victory.

"STORMS TO WEATHER"
The R.A.F. could look back on these achievements with satisfaction, "but it is what lies ahead that matters and in war ships have many storms to weather yet."

Chief Marshal Longmore concluded by wishing good luck to the R.A.F. in the Middle East and at home.

ITALIANS PLASTERED
LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuter) — "We found the Italian ships steaming like Billy-ho for home and fairly plastered them," was a Squadron Leader's description of one R.A.F. attack on the Italians during Friday's naval battle.

This squadron was en route for a normal raid on Tripoli when it received news of the war at sea and cheerfully altered direction.

"We hit one big ship twice amidships," he said, "and she stopped with clouds of black and yellow smoke shooting up 200 feet."

News of the Italian panic comes from the leader of another R.A.F. attack. "We found the Italians fleeing in great confusion, zig-zagging violently and occasionally getting in each other's way," he said, adding simply, "We bombed them and increased the confusion."

CHINA WAR:
HIGH JAPANESE OFFICERS SLAIN IN KIANGSI ACTION

CHUNGKING, April 2 (Central) — Among the high ranking Japanese officers killed in action in the recent Kiangsi campaign, the bodies of three more regimental commanders, namely Hamada, Tanaka and Itagaki, have been identified, according to field dispatches received here from the front.

As a result of vigorous mop-up operations carried out by the Chinese, most of the remnant Japanese units scattered in areas between Kaoan and Fengshu have been liquidated. Only a few stragglers remain to be rounded up.

In the Anyi sector, the Chinese are continuing attacks. Besides inflicting numerous casualties on the Japanese there, the Chinese have also severed the Japanese communication on the Changkung-tu-Anyi highway.

A message from Shushui states that following the collapse of the Japanese offensive in the Kaoan-Fengshu sector, Chinese forces are launching a concerted attack on Pengtse, important city on the south bank of the Yangtze 38 miles below Kiukiang, in northeast Kiangsi.

JAPANESE DECIMATED
Advancing in several columns, the Chinese on March 28 captured the Japanese position at Weng-fushan, a strategic height south of Fengtse, following a furious engagement in which the Japanese were heavily decimated before being ejected from the point.

On March 29, the Japanese dispatched a large relief detachment to the Wangfushan region but was intercepted by the Chinese and repulsed with losses.

BRITISH SEA POWER MAINTAINED WITH TRADITIONAL COURAGE AND BRILLIANCE

LONDON, April 2 (Reuter) — Congratulations from the British Government have been sent to the Commander-in-Chief of the Mediterranean Fleet on the recent brilliant victory over the Italian Fleet.

The Leader of the House, Lord Moyne, said: "Today our minds are filled with the gallantry of the forces engaged off Matapan and the brilliant skill of their leadership. This war has taught us no new lessons to add to the courage and brilliancy with which we have maintained our sea power. These qualities are traditional."

"The battle of Cernaia was a model combination between land, air and sea forces and the battle of Matapan has offered a perfect example of co-operation between the Fleet, the Air Arm and the R.A.F. which was based on the island of Crete. At last the training and efficiency of the Fleet has had its reward."

"Throughout the war, it has faced the methods of submarine warfare which the Germans have applied in what was previously looked upon as a system of indiscriminate murder. The Nazis have profited by the bitter experience of the Graf Spee which with its heavier armament was driven to destruction by the accurate gunners of the Achilles, Ajax and Exeter and have since that experience taken care that Nazi and Italian surface ships shall never meet their match in size or arms but shall run away from smaller units to avoid disaster."

BATTLE OF ATLANTIC
The present scale of British shipping losses is not high enough for Hitler to achieve victory in 1941 as he had promised and he can only win by obtaining mastery of the Private Secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty, speaking in London yesterday.

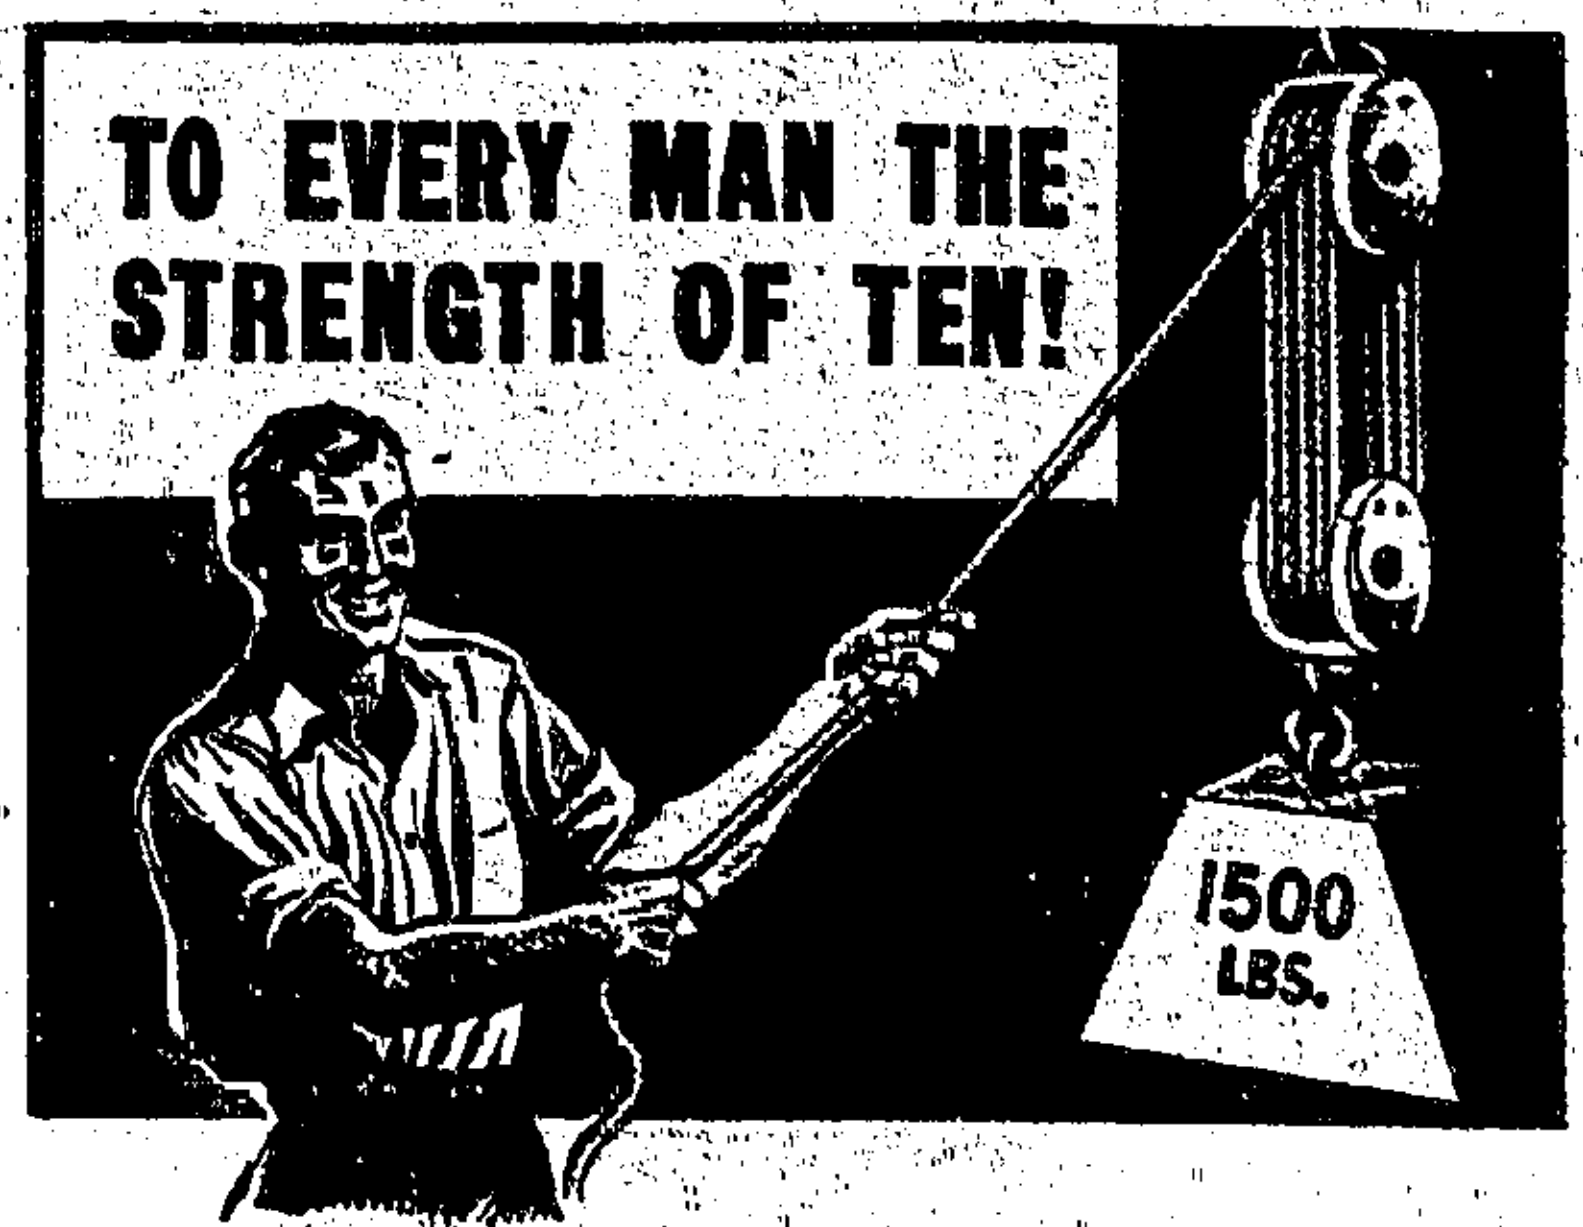

Admiral Cunningham's latest triumph was only a phase in the great naval battle. The deciding phase would be fought in the Atlantic. It would be a hard and tough fight, but we would win."

TURKEY & HITLER'S NEW ORDER
LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuter) — "The basic principles of Hitler's New Order are totally alien to Turkish conviction on the rights of nations, no matter how small, to live an independent life," stated the Vice-President of the Grand National Assembly of Turkey at a conference on Monday at Istanbul, says the Ankara Radio.

"The peace we are seeking," added the Vice-President, "is not the peace meted out to submissive martyrs and serfs. It is a peace based on the equality of rights and freedom of a nation. In case of an onslaught against Turkish independence and security of the Motherland, we are ready to defend ourselves in the most heroic manner."

U.S. AIR FORCE FOR EUROPE?
NEW YORK, April 2 (Reuter) — Approximately six Americans out of 10 now believe the chances are 50-50, or better, that the United States will send an air force and navy to Europe, according to the Fortune Magazine's latest poll.

Answers to other questions indicated that 60.9 per cent are in favour of sending Britain more than half of United States arms.

BELGIAN DIPLOMAT MARRIED

Mr. L. G. de San And Mlle. de Chaffoy de Courcelles

The Right Rev. H. Valtorta, Vicar-Apostolic of Hongkong, officiated at the marriage at St. Joseph's Church, Garden Road, yesterday morning between Mlle. LEONIE ALICE MARIA DE CHAFFOY DE COURCELLES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.E.M.H. de Chaffoy de Courcelles, and MR. LOUIS GERARD HENRI DE SAN, Secretary to the Belgian Embassy in China, and a grandson of the late King Albert of Belgium.

The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. Edouard de San, of Brussels, Hon. General Secretary of the Belgian Congo and formerly Governor of the Kasai Province in the Congo.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a dress of white brocade satin in strict princess lines and carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Miss Challinor and Miss Christensen, the bridesmaids, respectively wore dresses of pink and blue flowered taffeta in early Victorian period. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of fine blue French lace with hat by Gage's, sailor with pink roses.

The duties of bestman were discharged by Mr. M. Pirenne.

Following the Church ceremony, a reception was held at the Jacobean Room of the Hongkong Hotel where many friends gathered.

The honeymoon is being spent at the Repulse Bay Hotel. Mrs. de San's going-away costume being a silk dress of dark green with white spots.

POPULAR MEMBER

The bride, who is a popular member of the Colony's younger set, came to Hongkong in 1930 and was a pupil in the Central British School before returning to Belgium for a few years to complete her education at a boarding school.

She is a keen member of the Fanling Hunt, the Cottage Club and the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club.

The bridegroom was born at Borna, Belgian Congo, and entered the diplomatic service of his country in 1935, being first posted to Berlin and then to Chungking, where he has been for the past two years.

He is also a well-known sportsman, especially in the field of gliding. He holds the Belgian record for the highest flight for gliders with 18,000 feet, and in April, 1940, broke all Far East records for soaring and gliding with a sustained flight of five hours and a height of 6,200 feet over China's war capital.

Mr. de San holds the rank of Lieutenant in the reserve of cavalry of the 1er Regiment Royal des Guides.

Indian Watchman Accused Of Killing Kept Woman

Alleged to have killed his kept woman, LI FONG, at Hung Hom, Bawa Singh, 48-year-old watchman of Messrs. Arnold and Company, was charged before Mr. D. J. N. Anderson at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday.

Mr. J. P. Murphy, Assistant Crown Solicitor, prosecuting, said that about 10.30 p.m. on Mar. 3 a Chinese, who was delivering goods to the Chung Wah Knitting Factory, To Kwa Wan, Hung Hom, saw, about 180 yards away from the factory, an Indian holding the wrist of a Chinese woman.

When he reached the factory he heard shouting for help coming from the direction where the Indian and the woman were. As it was raining he ignored it and entered the factory.

Continuing, Mr. Murphy said that a folk of another factory went home and saw a Chinese woman running with blood on her face. He was afraid and shut the door behind him. He heard behind the door an Indian talking to a woman.

Another folk of the Chung Wah Factory, said Mr. Murphy, went out and saw the woman sitting on the pavement with an Indian kneeling in front of her wiping the blood from her

New Kowloon-Canton Rly. Time Table

A new local time table, cancelling all previous time tables, has been issued by the Kowloon-Canton-Railway. The new time table became effective yesterday and will remain in force until further notice.

Information with regard to this may be obtained at the Railway Office, Kowloon, or from the various travel agencies, hotels or larger department stores.

ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

PICKPOCKET CONVICTED

Fung Luk, 21, unemployed, was sentenced by Mr. G.T. Lowry yesterday to three months' hard labour for stealing a purse containing $100 from the person of Ho Kul, 36, accountant, at the Hongkong Yau-matt Vehicular Wharf on April 1.

Sub-Insp. Whelan, prosecuting, said that defendant had a previous conviction for a similar offence.

COOLIE REMANDED

Charged with stealing a watch and a Pelican fountain pen from the person of Tang Chiu-kwong, shroff, in an alley-way off Wing Wo Street on March 14, together with two others not in custody, Wong Hung, 20, earth coolie, were remanded until today by Mr. Lowry yesterday.

Det.-Sgt. A.F. Cochrane is in charge of the case.

FALSE PRETENCES

Pleading guilty to a charge of obtaining money by false pretences, Chan Hop-yeung, 23, unemployed, was sentenced to two months' hard labour by Mr. Lowry yesterday.

Prosecuting, Det.-Sgt. J. R. Sykes said that defendant obtained various sums amounting to $104.80 from Wong Sing, shop foki, on divers date between Feb. 18 and Mar. 24, by pretending that he was able to make profits by purchasing goods in the Colony and selling them in Chinese territories.

BAKER BOUND OVER

Wong Wing, 27, baker, of Cafe Windsor, Queen's Road Central, appeared before Mr. Lowry yesterday on a charge of stealing a quantity of cakes and puddings on April 2.

Sub-Insp. Whelan said that defendant was seen coming out of the premises carrying a package containing about $1 worth of pastries.

Defendant pleaded guilty and said that he was earning $11 a month. The cakes were 3 days old and he thought that they did not want them any more.

He was bound over in the sum of $30 for six months.

"TSE TAN" TICKETS

A fine of $50, or one month's hard labour, to be followed by banishment, was imposed by Mr. Lowry yesterday on Wong Fu, 19, unemployed, for unlawful possession of 16 "tse tan" lottery tickets.

AT KOWLOON

TRAFFIC MISHAP SEQUEL

Bail of $250 was granted by Mr. H. C. Macnamara yesterday to Wong Pui, 33, bus driver of the Kowloon Motorbus Company, who was charged with driving without due care and caution.

The case was a sequel to an accident in which an aged couple were knocked down at Castle Peak Road, near Yen Chau Street, and died later in the Kowloon Hospital.

Defendant was remanded for three days.

TRESPASSING

J. H. Xavier, 25, J. Rew, 17, and Tai Ying-cheung, 22, were charged before Mr. D. J. N. Anderson yesterday with trespassing in Whitefield Barracks, a protected area, on March 31.

Det.-Sgt. A. Bethell asked for a remand of 48 hours which was granted.

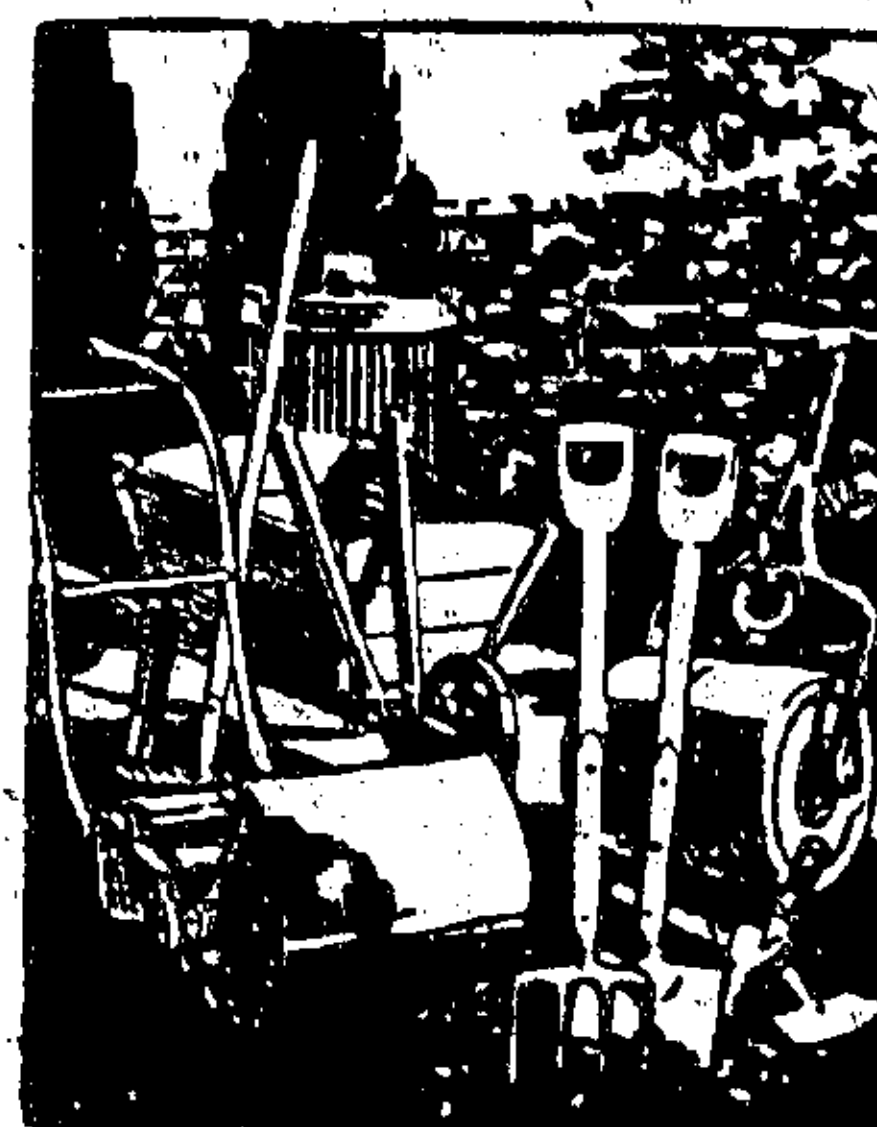

BOGUS POLICEMEN

A fine of $400 or, in default, six months' hard labour, was imposed by Mr. Macnamara yesterday on Tsui Tak, 32, nightsoil coolie, and Lo Tong, 31, gardener, who appeared on two charges of impersonating Police officers.

Det.-Sgt. A. Shaw, prosecuting, said that on March 17 defendants went to No. 399, Castle Peak Road and saw the master of a marine shop who had bought a sack of coal dust. They were alleged to have told the master that they were police officers and that the sack of coal dust was stolen property and asked for $5 to settle the matter. The money was duly paid. Accused later came back for $2 more which was duly handed over.

On March 25 defendants again tried the same trick on a marine

A DUAL TASK

LIKE ALL other nations involved in modern warfare, China today is faced with a dual task—that of, successfully resisting aggression and also of maintaining the country's national reconstruction. In the war in the west, Britain and her allies, as well as their enemies, have all along realised the importance of keeping the military and economic aspects of warfare in juxtaposition to each other. In China, it would appear, that inadequate attention has been given to the economic phase of the war in which the country is engaged and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, in his address to the Eighth Plenary Session of the Central Executive of the Kuomintang on Tuesday, administered a gentle rebuke to its members for, what he termed, the laxity of their efforts in this direction. It is an accepted rule in the conduct of large-scale hostilities, that however successful a country may be in political and military strategy against an enemy, it is impossible to alienate this from the economic effort needed to ensure that the resources of the nation are being fully used to keep the war machine functioning smoothly and also to meet the essential requirements of the civilian population.

IN CHINA the need for emphasis on this score is slightly greater than in Europe. The Chinese are fighting on their own soil an enemy who has already taken control of large tracts of their territory. In these occupied areas, the Japanese have diverted to their own use the economic resources of every town and village they have taken over and it, therefore, becomes necessary for the people of Free China, to use the Generalissimo's own words, "to exert their efforts tenfold and hundredfold more" so that their national security may be safeguarded for all time. It is on this economic effort of the people that the staying power of the Chinese against their invaders will depend. Admittedly, China is faced with many difficulties in increasing her economic strength. The Japanese blockade of her coasts has limited the flow of those materials which are necessary for her economic reconstruction. But Free China still comprises vast territory and, if the resources in the unoccupied areas are properly mobilised and organised on a war footing, there will be no cause to feel any undue apprehension over China's economic position.

IN THIS economic reconstruction plan, China is actually placed in a far more favourable position than Japan. Growing resentment against the Japanese aggression among those powers who realise that China, too, is fighting in the common cause, has reacted disastrously on Japan's economic and financial strength. Sources from which she was able to draw most of her needs in the matter of raw materials are now closed to her and this is one of the main factors which has

Government House Is Falling Down

MAY HAVE TO BE ABANDONED

The Hongkong Daily Press was officially informed yesterday that due to the continual subsidence of the slopes upon which Government House stands, the official residence of His Excellency the Governor will have to be abandoned in the very near future.

The appearance of new and more extensive cracks in the northern part of the house has made it advisable for His Excellency, and his entourage, to move to the southern part which, so far, is in good order and condition.

INCH A DAY

When interviewed by a Hongkong Daily Press reporter, the Hon. Mr. A. B. Purves, Director of Public Works, stated that the rate of subsidence varied from nothing to an inch a day.

Asked if there was any possibility of carrying out repairs to the house, Mr. Purves replied "Absolutely none," and the question of finding alternative accommodation for His Excellency has been receiving serious and urgent consideration.

"The existence of A.R.P. tunnels under Government House has greatly undermined the foundation of this old building," said Mr. Purves.

Insp. W. Mair, of the Hongkong Police Force, has returned after long leave.

St. Andrew's Fellowship will hold a Progression Games evening on Thursday, Apr. 24.

The Rev. K. Mackenzie Dow, Minister of the Hongkong Union Church, has returned to the Colony.

Members of Christ Church, Kowloon Tong, will be the guests of St. Andrew's Club at a social to be held in St. Andrew's Church Hall on Thursday, Apr. 17, at 9 p.m.

The annual Lenten Mission services commenced at the Roman Catholic Cathedral yesterday evening, when a sermon entitled "God or Chaos" was delivered by the Very Rev. Fr. G. Byrne, S.J., before a large congregation. The services will be continued each evening at the same time, until Wednesday, April 9.

compelled her to expand her "New Order" plans in order to secure a foothold in those countries which are able to supply her urgent needs. China, on the other hand, is still given every facility for making contacts with the outside world. All countries, except those which have sided with the Axis Powers, are open for her trade and, indeed, she is continuing to receive the best co-operation, particularly from the United States and Great Britain, in an effort to overcome the difficulties of transporting the commodities she needs. These facilities, however, must be reinforced by economic organisation and planned reconstruction within the country itself. Closer co-operation between the Kuomintang and the people, as urged by the Generalissimo, must be the first step. Once that closer relationship is achieved, the economic effort will be complete and sustained.

A lecture on "Is a United States of Europe Possible" will be given by Mr. E. C. Thomas, B.Sc., F.R.G.S., in St. Andrew's Church Hall on Wednesday, Apr. 9, at 8.30 p.m., under the auspices of St. Andrew's Club.

Kenneth T. Lindsay, son of the Rev. G. Reginald Lindsay, M.A., Vicar of St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon, from 1919 to 1927, has been awarded an Open History Exhibition at Jesus College, Cambridge.

Mrs. Hall and Judith and Christopher, wife and children of Bishop Hall have arrived safely in England. Their boat, says The Andrian, was torpedoed when almost in safety and some of the crew lost their lives but all the passengers were rescued.

"The Dean, during his short stay in Hongkong has shown himself to be a man of courage, faith and ability," says The Andrian in offering sincere congratulations to the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, on his invitation by the Archbishop of Canterbury to become Bishop of Singapore.

The next general meeting of the Hongkong University Science Society will be held on Tuesday, April 8, at 8.30 p.m., in Room "K" of the Main Building, when Dr. D. S. W. Ling, Ph.D., will deliver a lecture entitled "Some Hongkong Sea-shore Animals." All interested will be welcome.

A total of 8.50 inches of rain was recorded at the Botanic Gardens during the month of March. Throughout the month 10 days were without rain and of the 21 remaining days the highest falls, 1.34 and 1.76 inches, were recorded on the 6th and 16th respectively.

Dr. G. F. Winfield, head of the Department of Biology of Cheloo University, Tsinanfu, gave an interesting talk on "The Epidemiology of the Faecal Borne Diseases in a North China Village" to members of the University Medical Society in the Anatomy Lecture Theatre yesterday evening. Prof. R. C. Robertson presided and the speaker was thanked by Mr. T. C. Pang, Hon. Secretary of the Society.

"FROM THE OLD COUNTRY":

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS IN THE PRESENT WORLD, SAYS MR. ROBERT DONAT

"One of the greatest blessings of all is that, in this turbulent world of ours today, there is still room for the other point of view," said MR. ROBERT DONAT, the noted stage-and-screen star, when he broadcast from London yesterday in the series "FROM THE OLD COUNTRY".

Incidentally, this talk was the last to be given by Mr. Donat in this series, and he concluded it yesterday with the words: "For the time being I must say 'Goodbye, Everybody.' I look forward to renewing our acquaintance at a later date—the sooner the better from my point of view."

STIMULATING EXPERIENCE
Mr. Donat, at the beginning of his remarks, mentioned that it would be the last in the series. He said that, naturally, he hoped that it would be possible to arrange for further talks at later dates.

"It has been a very stimulating experience to me to be introduced by the short-wave," said Mr. Donat. "Actually, what I have been trying to tell you week by week does not amount to very much. A lot of it, indeed, has been very obvious because it happens to be as plain as the nose on your face. But it is plain common sense I have been trying to give you—plain common sense in telling you that Herr Hitler and his new order are going to vanish from the earth."

"It is plain common sense that we should find something more and more ordered, and more acceptable, than Herr Hitler's new order, for the simple reason that the old order has failed to keep peace. I am sure that this plain common sense will show you the full necessity of this war. We feel that we can fashion certain means that will prevent it happening again."

OTHER POINT OF VIEW
"All over the world today people are talking about the new social order—the removal of slums, etc.—that will come into being after the war. Don't for a moment imagine that I am belittling that sort of thing, even if a lot of it is wishful thinking. Some of the greatest achievements of the world have begun with wishful thinking. "But don't forget the other point of view," declared Mr. Donat. "I myself am all for optimism, but not for blind optimism and I must say that pessimists very often provoke optimists in the right direction."

"We must not forget that opportunity is very often the creation of the intelligent mind and we are not all gifted with an intelligent mind. If a man has the benefits of the finest education, everyone will have the best chance of making his way in the world and that is a just and necessary reform."

FAMILY LIFE
"What is true is that the disappearance of slums must go with the disappearance of drunken men and women. We must not forget that there are men and women who can guarantee to turn a slum centre into a beautiful place in a week, and in those men and women we see the efforts of civilisation."

Refugees In The Colony

An increase of six in the number of refugees and destitutes accommodated in Government camps, etc., in urban and rural areas for the week ending on Mar. 29 is recorded in the Government Returns received yesterday.

Urban Areas: King's Park 1,308 against 1,316 on Mar. 22; Ma Tau Chung 1,499 against 1,571 on Mar. 22; North Point 1,526 against 1,528 on Mar. 22; Morrison Hill 519 against 519 on Mar. 22.

Urban Areas (Squatters' Camps): Tai Hang 2,557 against 2,557 on Mar. 22; Ngau Tau Kok 802 against 802 on Mar. 22.

Rural Areas: Kam Tin 1,889 against 1,793 on Mar. 22; Fanling Children's Camp 314 against 321 on Mar. 22.

Total: 10,413 against 10,407 on Mar. 22.

tion, I have also known such houses which are blest with the pride of ownership and the love of family life—beautiful, warm and inviting to the eye. I have also lived for a time in the old palaces of kings and queens, in which, for all their splendour, there is a certain drabness of life.

"It is no use pretending that the whole of mankind is good and that the whole of mankind is worth the battle we are out to win. Don't forget that once a bunch of kids gets obstreperous in the nursery floor terrible things can happen. As a father of three, I can speak from experience. Speaking as a father, I can say that there is a very good reason for the wallings and squakings of children, but very few nurses know what to do about it. Some of them resort to punishment and the storing up of fears which are the most dangerous of all remedies. Ignorance is no excuse, however well meaning."

"It is hypocrisy to try to shut a child up at all costs, without taking the trouble to find out why a child is worrying its head off. Such people are appeasement-mongers and very often they prove troublesome ones."

THE OLD CRY

Mr. Donat mentioned that recently he got into an argument with a young man who was very depressed about the war. The old cry about the man who holds the money—the bankers and the big businessmen—was trotted out.

This young man had declared that the same time is taking place in the Balkans. He had said: "Take the Balkans. Do you imagine there is any democracy alive there? It is all big business."

"And here I could not help remarking to him that Herr Hitler has already taken the Balkans, or, at least, the greater part of it," declared Mr. Donat. "But the next day there was something in the papers about a change of Government in Yugoslavia. I don't know whether this young man heard the news—perhaps he is still fretting about our foreign policy. "Anyway," continued Mr. Donat, "we have now seen a revolution—a bloodless revolution, representing the will of a people, which took place overnight. It seems to be, therefore, that in spite of big business bigger issues still matter."

COUNT OUR BLESSINGS

Mr. Donat next referred to a new series of talks which have been broadcast by Mr. A. P. Herbert who had followed a talk by Mr. J. B. Priestley. Whenever he felt down in the dumps, said Mr. Donat, he always read extracts from Mr. A. P. Herbert's speeches in Parliament, and Mr. A. P. Herbert had administered a new tonic on Sunday night. Mr. Priestley's talks, however, were deeply interesting and he hoped that many of his views would materialise after the war.

"Mr. Priestley said some very steady things to us," said Mr. Donat. "He advised us not to be too restless, but to count our blessings. I am one of those who is determined to strive for a safer world, but I realise that in the world at present we have a great deal to be thankful for, and it is a good thing to take stock of them now and again. One of the greatest blessings of all is that in this turbulent world of ours there is still room for the other point of view."

WORTH ENDURING

"I have been upset by this ever since the war began, but my ideas have now been stimulated into thinking more deeply. They have been strengthened and replaced by something entirely new. The most exciting chapters in the book of history deal with the troubles and sufferings of people who set out to indicate their way of life, their ideals and their liberties against the power of the oppressors. Don't let us lose sight of the fact that the oppressor himself is very often the unyielding means of achieving a better life."

"These periods were not periods of comfort. There were some evil times but history tells us that they were worth enduring. Some of the burdens are so great that many nations have life crushed out of them and their spirit killed but only for a time."

YUGOSLAV REVOLUTION:

FIRST MOVE IN EUROPE IN DEFENCE OF FREEDOM, SAYS VERNON BARTLETT

"As far as I can remember, since October 1922, when I saw Signor Mussolini march on Rome, every single move in Europe has been carried out by men who believed in the suppression of nation and in the destruction of freedom. This Yugoslav revolution is the first move in Europe in defence of freedom," said MR. VERNON BARTLETT, M.P., when he broadcast from London yesterday on the significance of the recent setbacks which the Axis Powers have received and the effect of these on Europe.

Mr. Bartlett opened his talk with a comment on Mr. Matsuo's visit to Berlin and Rome and said that he would greatly have wished to see Herr von Ribbentrop, the Nazi Foreign Minister, explaining to Mr. Matsuo the recent reverses which the Axis Powers had sustained.

NAZI COMMENT

The Germans themselves had emphasised the importance of the developments in Yugoslavia. One comment, when Yugoslavia signed the Axis Pact, was that it was a "diplomatic Dunkirk" for England. Another comment described Yugoslavia's signature as "a crowning triumph," while yet another declared that "Britain had lost the diplomatic battle of the Continent."

"I said last week," went on Mr. Bartlett, "that Herr Hitler had won a most remarkable diplomatic victory over the politicians. I forgot to add my reasons for saying this—namely that the Yugoslav people had never failed to fight for their independence. I also said that Herr Hitler would find that he had to deal with perhaps the most courageous people in the whole of Europe."

Mr. Bartlett declared that one German newspaper had recently stated that Mr. Matsuo had arrived in Berlin at a moment when the work of the new European order had made another step forward. "He was correct," said Mr. Bartlett, "but it was our new order, and not Herr Hitler's."

GREATEST JOY OF ALL

Mr. Bartlett then referred to the countries under Nazi rule. In Rumania, he said, General Antonescu appeared to have had already enough of being a puppet ruler.

"As you can imagine," continued Mr. Bartlett, "we in Great Britain are delighted at the tremendous defeat our Navy has inflicted on the Italians. We are delighted too at the success of the Imperial forces in Eritrea and Abyssinia."

"But the Yugoslavia affair gives us the greatest joy of all, because one realises that the human will, of which this affair in an expression, is more important than armies and navies."

HITLER'S DILEMMA

"When you come to think of it, Herr Hitler's dilemma is a difficult one. Yugoslavia is really now able to carry on a campaign of nerves against him and what Herr Hitler has to decide is whether he should attack or whether he should carry on as though the previous Yugoslav Government had not signed along the dotted line."

"If Herr Hitler does nothing, no other country will be frightened of him again. If he attacks, it will prove a very expensive decision."

Mr. Bartlett said that Herr Hitler had thought that the very arrival of German troops in Bulgaria would have caused the Greeks to surrender. Had the Greeks done so, Yugoslavia would not have been able to fight him and Turkey would not have been in the strong position in which she was today.

"But the Greeks did not surrender—they did not even think of surrendering in the face of all these threats to Salonika," declared Mr. Bartlett. "And thus, Herr Hitler could not reach the Eastern Mediterranean without fighting and his fight would be more severe if he had to attack Yugoslavia in addition to Greece."

THREAT TO ITALY

"If Yugoslavia is involved in war, it is fairly certain that their first action will be to send a few divisions into Albania to attack the Italians in the rear. Herr Hitler cannot afford to neglect the Italians. If, after losing so many men in Africa and so many ships in the Mediterranean, their expeditionary force in Albania is forced to surrender, Herr Hitler will be in greater difficulties than ever."

"He may, therefore, take Italy over as a conquered province. There are so many German troops in Italy today that she may be said to be already reduced to that status. All this had had the effect of turning Italy into a German province."

"Today Signor Mussolini can hardly lay any claim to his previous statement that the Mediterranean is Italy's sea. Indeed, he can hardly claim that over the Adriatic. The Adriatic, which has more or less now passed into Allied hands, might prove a bit of a nuisance to Herr Hitler's troops in Italy."

OLD TACTICS

"In these circumstances, it is not surprising that Herr Hitler is using his old tactics and trying to say that Britain is attempting to extend the war in the Balkans. These tactics are wearing a little thin, because Yugoslavia today has a better weapon than Herr Hitler in this war of nerves."

"I don't know much about what Mr. Eden is doing in Athens," continued Mr. Bartlett, "but he will certainly be considering means to prevent the spreading of the war to that area."

VICHY AND BRITAIN

Mr. Bartlett declared that the news of the latest naval battle came at a particularly suitable moment for the Western Mediterranean as well as the Eastern Mediterranean.

"It does look very much as if the Darian Government in Vichy will have to make up its mind as to whether it wants to remain the Axis slave," went on Mr. Bartlett. "Britain has been postponing her policy as regards Vichy for a very long time, but now there is no doubt that half the cargoes brought to France goes to Germany."

Mr. Bartlett said that there was evidence that large quantities of supplies from French North Africa were passing into occupied and unoccupied France and in the three weeks from November 18, no fewer than 88 vessels had berthed at Marseilles.

"Here in England, we are finding it increasingly difficult to be moved by appeals on humanitarian grounds," said Mr. Bartlett. "Quite apart from the fact that so much food is going to our enemies, in normal times France did not need all these supplies."

FRENCH IMPORTS

Mr. Bartlett declared that in 1938 France had imported less than one per cent. of her potatoes and, even so, she was able to export nearly twice as much of her own home-grown potatoes. Besides, the British blockade did not hinder France from obtaining potatoes from natural markets. France had been self-supporting in such things as wheat, rye and oats and was able to supply eighty per cent. of her necessary feeding stocks.

"As Herr Hitler knows, almost the last thing we want to have in Britain is trouble with our allies or ex-allies, but what we don't want is to give Germany what she wants by making a farce of blockade," concluded Mr. Bartlett.

SPIRITED DEBATE IN COMMONS

Sunday Cinema Vote Narrowly Defeated

LONDON, April 2 (Reuter).—Should wartime conditions be allowed to interfere with Britain's traditional Sunday?

The House of Commons, after a spirited debate, decided that the traditional Sunday must be upheld.

The debate arose from a Government order, enabling theatres to open on Sundays. The Government, however, made it clear that no political implications were involved and that every member was free to vote according to the dictates of his own feelings.

Member after member argued that theatres should have the same freedom as the B.B.C. and cinemas, and the Home Secretary (Mr. Herbert Morrison), speaking for the Government, declared that both soldiers and workers needed these facilities.

But meanwhile opponents were busy in the lobbies rounding up supporters and rather to their own surprise, says Reuter's Lobby Correspondent, they won.

On a free vote, the order enabling theatres to open on Sundays was defeated by 144 votes against 136.

MADRAS, Apr. 2 (Reuter).—The Governor's War Fund is expected to pass the crore (10,000,000) rupee mark (£750,000) in a couple of days.

GALA PREMIERE OF "PASTOR HALL"

Story Of Incarceration Of Niemoeller

Graced by a distinguished audience, "PASTOR HALL," described as the best film yet made of life in Nazi Germany, began its local run at the LEE THEATRE last night with a gala premiere performance, held under the auspices of the CHINA DEFENCE LEAGUE, in aid of WAR ORPHANS.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, accompanied by Mr. B. C. Fay, Hon. A.D.C. attended and was received by Madame Sun Yat-sen (Chairman of the Defence League) and Mrs. Selwyn-Clarke and other officials.

Among others present were His Excellency Major-Gen. A. E. Grassett, Hon. Commissioner of Police, Mr. C. G. Perdue, and Mrs. Perdue, Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo and Mrs. Lo, Hon. W. J. Carlie, Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, Mr. Robert Ward, the American Consul, Dr. Li Shu-fan, Dr. Y. W. Wen, Mr. A. J. R. Moss, Mr. D. J. Sloss, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Woo, Prof. Gordon King, Miss Margaret Watson and many others.

"Pastor Hall," based on an original story by the famous German poet and author, Ernst Toller, an anti-Fascist refugee who took shelter in the United States, is a film which shows seriously and sensitively, for the first time, what we are fighting for and what we are fighting against.

In a prologue, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the United States President, said that the film was a story of most vital importance to all of us.

FINE PORTRAYAL

WILFRED LAWSON, as Pastor Hall, the clergyman who dares to rise up and fight against the Nazi regime, gives a very convincing portrayal in a difficult role.

In the role of the pastor's daughter, NOVA PILBEAM, the youthful star, gives a sincere and appealing impersonation. Excellent supporting roles are given by Marius Goring, Seymour Hicks and Hay Petrie.

The story, briefly, centres round a brave parish minister in the small German town of Altdorf who stood in defiance of the Nazi Government when the latter tried to paralyse the church. In actual fact it is a story behind the conviction of the Rev. Martin Niemöller, whose fearless attacks were responsible for his incarceration in a German concentration camp.

The film, produced by Roy Boulton, was presented by Mr. James Roosevelt, and released through United Artists.

In conjunction with last night's premiere showing, a dramatic new musical, "The Road to Victory," was also shown.

Five Times Explosive Power Of Any Previous Bombs Dropped By R.A.F.

RESEARCH CONTINUED FOR EVEN MORE CATASTROPHIC EFFECT

The new type of bombs dropped by the Royal Air Force on Emden "on Monday night" have FIVE TIMES THE EXPLOSIVE POWER OF ANY PREVIOUSLY DROPPED BY THE BRITISH PLANES. It was explained in a London message. The bombs are capable of causing destruction to buildings in a wide area.

Research work at the Air Ministry in connexion with high explosives, it was added, was still going on to make the bombs even more catastrophic in their effect.

"In the last few days and particularly in the raid on Emden the R. A. F. dropped the most powerful bombs ever released from aircraft," said the B. B. C. air expert when he commented in London last night on the new type of high-powered bombs now being used by the British Air Force.

The speaker said that when he used the word "powerful" that did not mean to say that these bombs were very large in size.

"It is the power factor that is most important now," he said. "It is easy to construct a big bomb but a bigger bomb meant that fewer bombs could be carried. The construction of a super-heavy bomb, therefore, is not justified and that is why increased power is so important."

VERY HEAVY

"If you can increase the power of your bombs without increasing their weight then the damage can be very heavy. That is what we have done."

The speaker said that the new type of bombers were being used for carrying these high-powered bombs and it was no secret that their bomb loads and range have been increased. This meant that more bombs and more powerful bombs will be dropped on the Nazis.

"Italians are stated to have been the first to have used bombs in aerial warfare," said the speaker. "That was in 1912 and, perhaps, it is restitution that the Italians have suffered so much in this war from a form of destruction that they themselves introduced."

BOMBERS SHOT DOWN

A German bomber was shot down off the coast of Devon yesterday, states a London message adding that only one body was recovered.

Five enemy aircraft were shot down over Britain on Tuesday night, three by A. A. fire, in the course of raids on a small scale.

One station was attacked but the aerodrome was not rendered unserviceable.

VIRTUALLY FREE

For the sixth night out of nine, Britain was virtually free of raids on Tuesday, says Reuter.

A few bombs were dropped during the evening in South-West England, states an Air Ministry communiqué.

These caused little damage and no casualties.

CONDITIONS IN FUKIEN

At the request of General Chen Yi, Chairman of the Fukien Provincial Government, a mission of five consisting one official from the Executive Yuan, one from the Control Yuan and three Fukien members of the People's Political Council has been appointed by the National Government to investigate the civil administration and reconstruction in Fukien.

General Chen requested that these investigations be carried out following recent allegations of maladministration. It is understood that General Chen has already reported to Chungking regarding the charges levelled against him.—(Central News)

German Propaganda Taking More Menacing Turn

LONDON, April 2 (Reuter).—The policy adopted by the Yugoslav Government is clear and unequivocal, writes Reuter's Diplomatic correspondent. They wish to maintain peace and to keep close and friendly relations with all their neighbours and, above all, to safeguard their political independence and territorial integrity.

While they have not repudiated the Tripartite Pact they are examining it very carefully and objectively. If provisions do not run counter to Yugoslav policy the Government of General Simovitch will probably not denounce the signature of its predecessors.

But, adds the correspondent, it is evident that the Germans are not prepared to leave the interpretation of the Pact in the hands of General Simovitch and his Government.

To the Nazis, as they have repeatedly declared, there is no such thing as neutrality. The country must be either for or against them, especially if the Germans are able to enforce this point of view.

TWO ALTERNATIVES

In these circumstances Germany's attitude would leave Yugoslavia only the alternatives of subservience or the consequences of refusal and it is significant that German propaganda is now running in the same direction as that taken before the attacks on Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

But the Germans are dealing in Belgrade with a Government which has come to power on the tide of national feeling against serfdom. As a result the attempt to drive

VICHY PROTEST TO BRITAIN

Sequel To Incident In Mediterranean

BERNES, Apr. 2 (Reuter).—A protest was addressed by the French Government to London after the convoy incident near the port of Nemours, Algeria, according to a Vichy telegram.

The protest, which was addressed through the United States Government, declares that for months past, visits on French merchantships by British naval units always ended in the capture of the vessels in question,

MINE SIGHTED

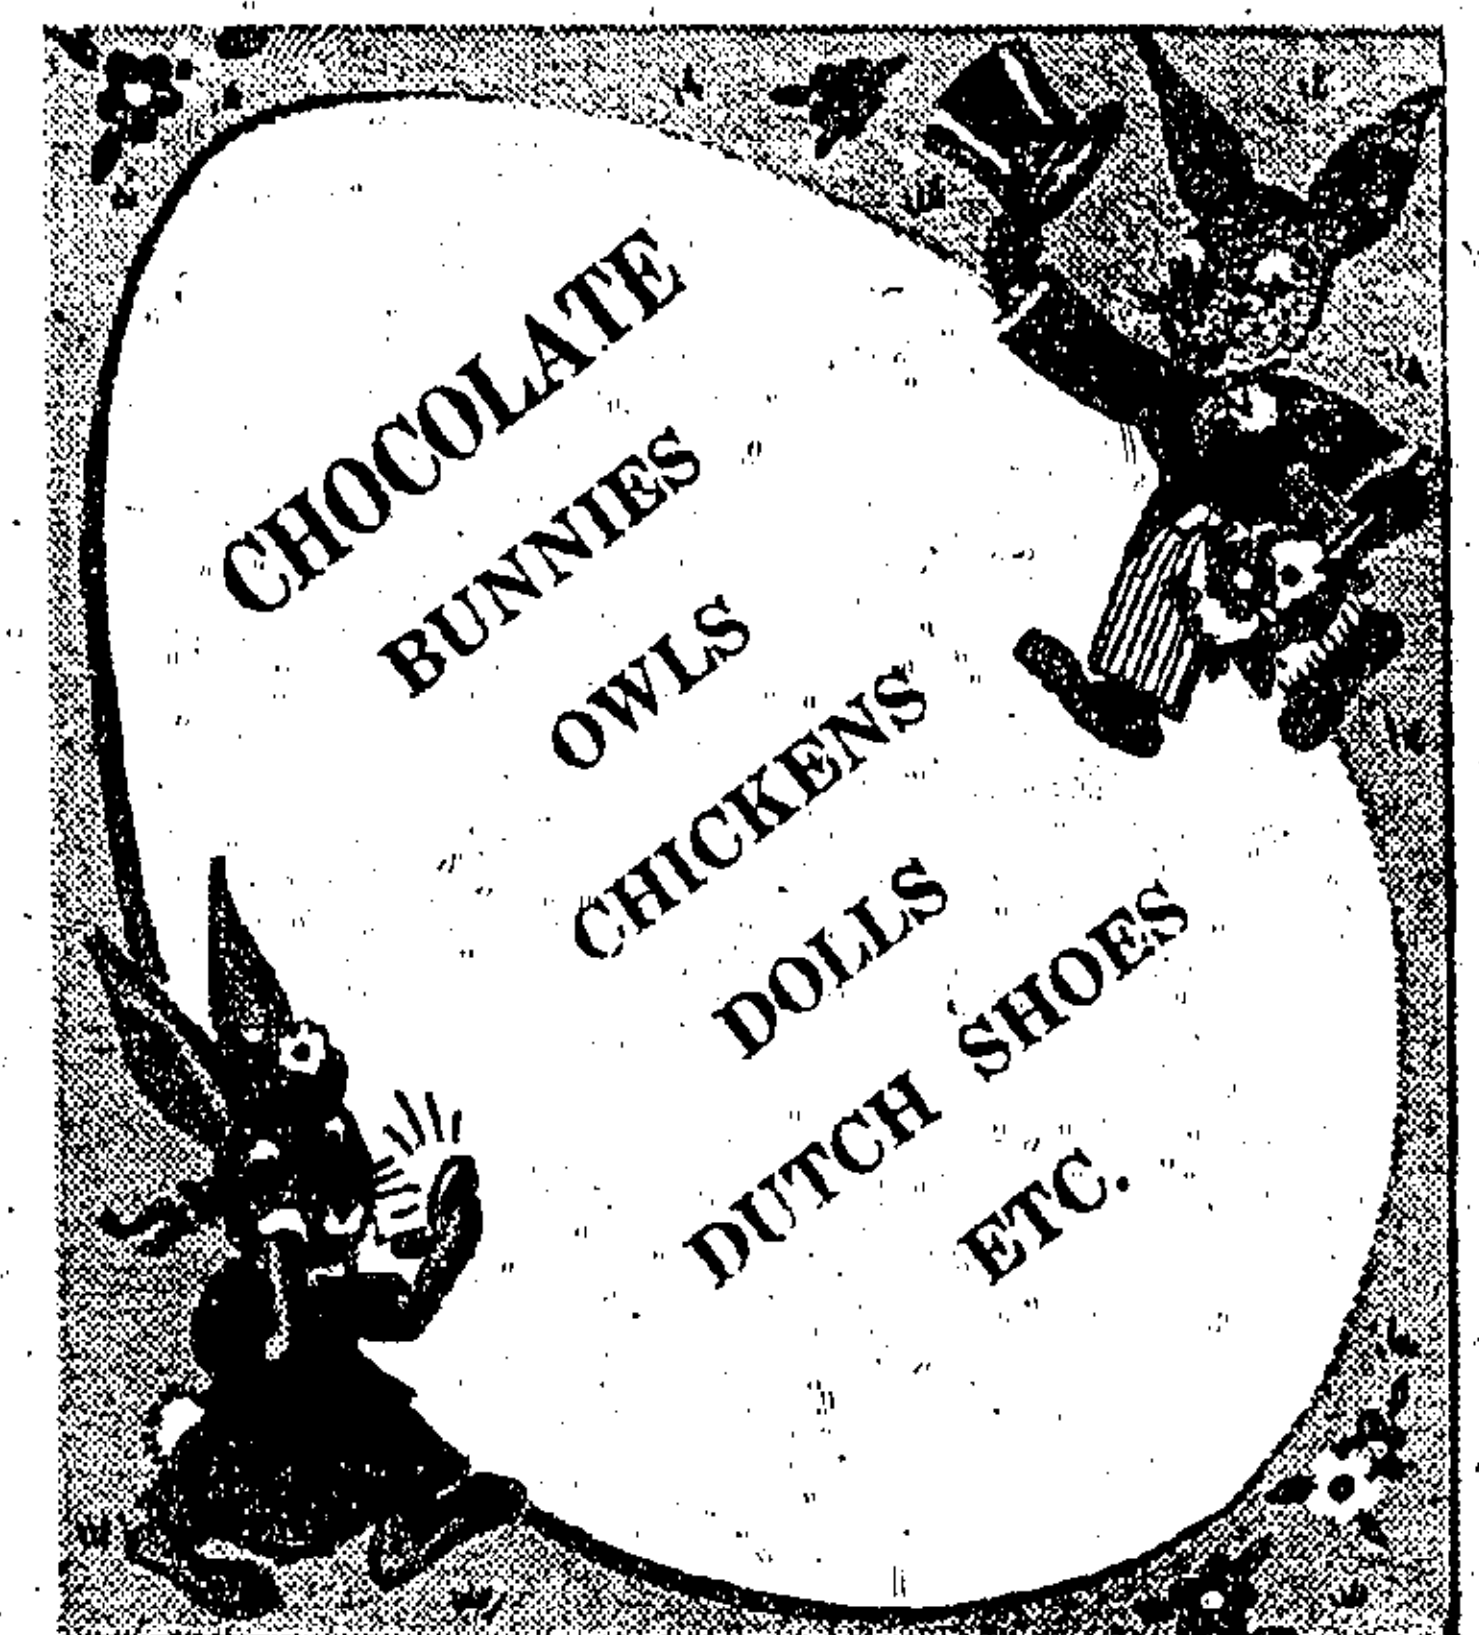

The Naval authorities report that a floating mine was sighted 2 1/4 miles north from Lintin Island yesterday in lat. 22 degrees 08' N. long. 114 degrees 03' E (approx.).

A derelict junk with foremast and sail still standing was reported to the Harbour authorities as drifting in lat. 22 degrees 44' 30" N. long. 106 degrees 17' E (approx.) on Monday. It is considered as dangerous to navigation.

"even when they did not carry cargo."

The view expressed was that the British Fleet exceeded the rights of inspection.

Appalling Living Conditions For Poor

Some appalling examples of the poverty that accompanied conditions of living for the poor in Hongkong were given by Miss J. R. Taylor, Secretary of the Hongkong Refugee and Social Welfare Council, when she addressed St. Andrews Church Lenten discussion group last night on "Poverty in Hongkong."

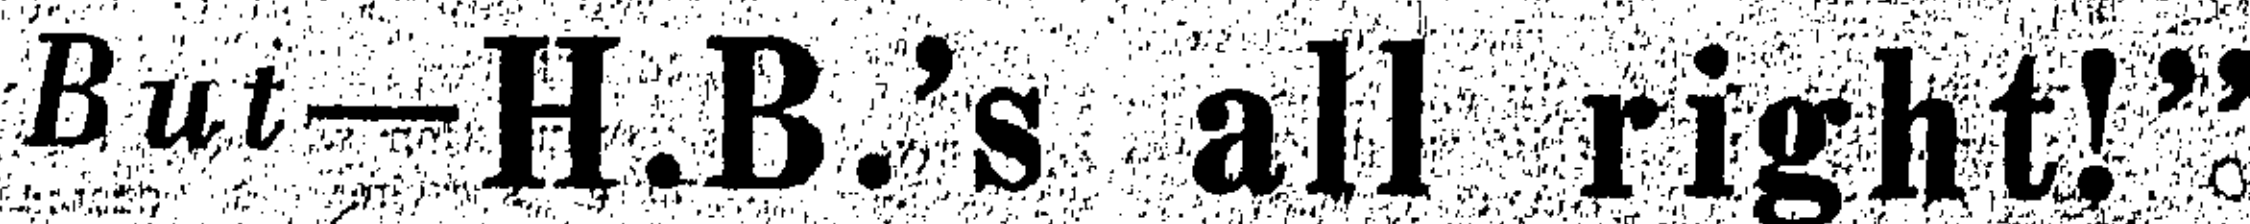

Referring to studies made among parents of children who are fed at several food kitchens being run here by charitable organisations, Miss Taylor said that it was not uncommon to find that such people shared a flat with as many as 19 other families and, with regard to sanitation, it was found that in almost every case, studied sanitary buckets usually occupied a space in the kitchen.

Drummer Shread beats a drum roll. The famous Chelsea Pensioners, a familiar sight to all visitors to London, recently took part in a broadcast in the BBC's Overseas short-wave service. They were interviewed by Cecil Madden, who is in charge of Outside Broadcasts in the overseas programmes, and told listeners of their experiences in campaigns fought many years ago. The picture shows Sergeant Major Lynch, who has been sergeant major at the Royal Hospital for twenty eight years, and some of the Pensioners, with Cecil Madden and Miss Joan Gilbert of the BBC staff. Despite Nazi bombs which have fallen around them, the Chelsea Pensioners remain breezy and cheerful in their home, the Royal Hospital, which was founded by King Charles II, at, according to tradition, the wish of Nell Gwynn, and built by Sir Christopher Wren.

Axis Demand Release Of Vessels

French Envoy Visits State Department

WASHINGTON, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—Germany and Italy have demanded the release of the seized Axis ships and their crews.

Following the reports that it is possible the United States will take action with regard to French ships in American ports, the French Ambassador, M. Henri Haey, visited the State Department to enquire into the matter.

On leaving, he told journalists that it was his "understanding" that the United States would not take any action against French merchantships in United States ports.

CREW FIRE SHIPS

SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—The German steamer, Eismach, 4,177 tons, and the Italian vessel, Fella, 6,042 tons, were completely destroyed by fire at Punta Arenas.

The crews have been arrested and put in gaol here awaiting trial.

DESTROYERS DESPATCHED

LIMA, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—The Peruvian destroyers, Almirante Guise and Almirante Villar, have been despatched by the naval authorities at Callao to chase the two German ships that weighed anchor on Monday night and made for the high seas.

It is thought that they will be intercepted by the Canadian warship Prince Henry, which visited Callao last week.

Both the German ships, over 5,000 tons each, were set on fire by the crews an hour later. The crews were interned.

GENERAL FRANCO GRANTS AMNESTY

VICHY, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—Forty thousand political prisoners, accused of rebellion, will be liberated under a law signed by General Franco yesterday, the second anniversary of the end of the Civil War, says a Madrid dispatch to the French official news agency.

The men to be freed are ex-soldiers of the Republican Army or civilians who supported the Republican regime. Their liberation is conditional and will become final only after each case has been individually examined.

Rumanian Rebellion Possibility

LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—Rumanian rebellion against the Nazis is a possibility that may yet be realised, according to M. V. V. Tillea, former Rumanian Minister in London, and now leader of the Free Rumanian movement.

Speaking at the Royal Empire Society meeting yesterday, M. Tillea said: "The real danger for the British Empire and America has come in the past, is coming today, and will probably come in the future, only from the German race whom you tried in vain to make your friends."

NEW PRESIDENT LINES POST

MR. E. R. LUTZ'S APPOINTMENT

Appointment of Mr. E. Russell Lutz, Assistant General Counsel of the United States Maritime Commission, to the post of "Assistant to the President" of the American President Lines, has been confirmed by Dr. Henry F. Grady, President of the shipping company.

RICH BACKGROUND

Dr. Grady and Lutz are former associates of the State Department in Washington, where the former served as Assistant Secretary of State and the latter as Assistant Solicitor and Assistant Legal Advisor. In April of 1937, Mr. Lutz left the State Department to enter the Legal Division of the U. S. Maritime Commission.

Mr. Lutz, like his new "Chief," Dr. Grady, has a rich background in commerce and international trade which amply qualifies him for his new position as Assistant to the President of the American President Lines. Born in Lancaster, Penna., in 1902, Mr. Lutz attended Bethany (W. Va.) College, received his B. A. from George Washington University in 1922, and his LL.B. from Yale in 1926. He did post graduate work at George Washington U. in maritime and foreign law, and was admitted to the Bar of the District of Columbia in 1927, and to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in 1930.

CONSIDERABLE SERVICE

During his eleven years with the State Department (1926-37), Lutz had considerable foreign service, on such jobs as the Mixed Claims Commission, U.S. and Germany and the Tripartite Claims Commission, U. S., Austria and Hungary (1927-30), the General Claims Commission, U.S. and Panama (1931-33), and U.S. and Mexico (1934-37).

He is a member of the American Society of International Law, American Bar Association, Yale Club of Washington, Beta Theta Pi (Psi Chapter at Bethany College), Book and Gavel Law Club and Phi Alpha Delta (Yale). He is married to the former Mildred Estelle Maddox, and they have one child, a daughter.

Mr. Lutz is expected to assume his new duties in San Francisco on or about March 15.

KWANGSI TEA FACTORY

A Kwangsi Tea Experimental Factory, jointly organised by the China National Tea Corporation and the Kwangsi Provincial Government, has been established in Linkwei with a branch at Honsten.

The factory is capitalised at $400,000, of which the China National Tea Corporation subscribes $200,000, while the Kwangsi Provincial Government and the Bank of Kwangsi subscribe $100,000 respectively.

Aside from experiments in tea manufacture, the factory will assist the provincial authorities in organising tea producers' co-operative societies and seek to increase the province's tea production. (Central News).

ANGLO-AMERICAN DISCUSSIONS

Blockade Policy Of Britain

LONDON, April 2 (Reuter)—Discussions are now proceeding in Washington between British and American representatives on certain aspects of the British blockade policy, states Reuter's lobby correspondent.

The British Government have no intention of relaxing in any way their general policy on the blockade.

An interesting commentary on the Vichy Government's professed desire for foodstuffs "for starving France" is found in the recent seizure of two French ships which were brought into Gibraltar. One contained nothing but bananas while the other, in addition to one million litres of rum, also carried 250 tons of pineapples.

In these days, such cargoes can be considered luxuries rather than necessities.

NAZI SHORTAGE

Regarding the general effects of the blockade, it is learned that the Germans are feeling a grave shortage of rubber, copper, nickel, alloys, wool and tanning materials. Germany is believed to be eating into her stocks of oil despite synthetic oil production and imports from Rumania and Russia.

By the end of the year, Germany is likely to be in serious difficulties about oil supplies if

Burma-China Railway

LONDON, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—The British Government have agreed to provide funds to enable the Government of Burma to build a railway line from the railhead at Lashio to the frontier which will link up the Burma railway system with that of China, stated the Secretary of State for Burma yesterday in reply to a question in the House of Commons.

It is understood that this is a long-term rather than a short-term plan, rendered necessary by the fact that the Burma-Yunnan Road has proved to be inadequate for most general requirements of traffic between the two countries.

U.S. MINERS GO ON STRIKE

NEW YORK, Apr. 2 (Reuter)—Four hundred and fifty thousand workers were affected by the stoppage of work in the United States Major Bituminous coal-mines.

The strike was due to a deadlock over the new contract for miners.

the heavy air attacks on her refineries and synthetic oil plants continue. If the Navy retains control of the Eastern Mediterranean and if the Nazis have to fight on land.

YUNNAN-BURMA RAILWAY

According to an official communiqué issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs today, the Yunnan-Burma Railway project is proceeding to schedule.

The Chinese Government has been informed that the British Government has agreed to provide funds to enable the Burmese Government to extend the Burma Line from Lashio to the Yunnan border.

It is said that the Yunnan-Burma highway opened in 1938 has been contributing to the development of Sino-Burmese trade. However, the road is considered inadequate and therefore the present railway is planned. (Central News).

"MAH-JONGG SCHOOLS"

would make any recreation centre pale with envy. Clerks, housewives, shop-assistants, office-boys and coolies, street coolies, and a collection of nondescripts were gathered around the tables with such an air of concentrated attention as to belie the claim that they were playing mah-jongg as a "recreation."

The air was thick with cigarette-smoke, and the smell of opium coupled with the stench of perspiring humanity defied description.

That these mah-jongg "schools" are the happy hunting grounds of card-sharps is evident from the occasional cases which have come before the Courts in which employees, and/or players, were charged with assaulting some other person alleged to have been found cheating.

In view of the growing number of assault cases involving these "schools," and the fatal attraction these establishments have for some of the shop assistants who, released from their work at 8 p.m. under the new Early Closing Hour Ordinance, flock to these places for their evening's "entertainment," the existence of these "schools" is fast becoming a public danger.

GAMBLING ORDINANCE

The definition of a common gaming house has been clearly set out in the GAMBLING ORDINANCE, 1891:

"A common gaming house means and includes any place, opened, kept or used (i) for playing therein at any game of chance or any mixed game of skill and chance; (ii) in which any commission or percentage is charged in connexion with the game, the stakes, or the winnings;" (Section 2 (a)).

A keeper of a common gaming house "means and includes the occupier or person having the use temporarily of any common gaming house, or any person having or appearing to have the care or management of such a place, and also any person who acts in any manner assisting in conducting the business of any such place or keeping watch in or about the same"; while Section 2 (g) gives "place means" and includes any house, room, office, agency, boat, vehicle, or vessel, or any erection movable or otherwise, or any spot on land or water."

"CLUBS" OR "SCHOOLS"? As the public are openly invited to enter these premises; and as there are exceedingly strong doubts whether there are any members of these "clubs," or if there exists even any records, the claim that these mah-jongg "schools" are "kul lok pos" (clubs) might be challenged by the Police in a Court of Law.

If these "schools" are permitted to exist, what is there to stop other people from starting a poker school, or any other gambling establishment under the title of "club"?

FUNERAL OF MR.
J. BAPTISTA

The funeral of Mr. Joaquim Baptista, aged 70, who died at No. 5, St. Joseph's Terrace, Robinson Road, took place at the Catholic Cemetery yesterday, Rev. Fr. S. Angelus and P. A. Rosello officiated.

The late Mr. Baptista had been on the staff of Jardine Matheson, Hongkong and Canton Fire Insurance Office, for over 30 years. Besides being a member of many charitable societies in the Colony, he was an artist of a very quiet disposition. It will be recalled that he painted the interior of the old City Hall.

THOSE PRESENT

Those present were Messrs. F. C. Hall, G. H. Piercy, R. G. Greer, J. B. Pomeroy, Insp. Fisher, Messrs. A. J. V. Ribeiro, L. Z. Marquis, A. M. Remedios, C. F. Vas, L. E. Remedios, E. L. Barros, A. C. $47,263.13 RAISED IN
Y.W.C.A. CAMPAIGN

Mrs. Kan Yau-man, who presided at yesterday's meeting of the CHINESE Y.W.C.A. FINANCIAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE, proved herself to be a sound prophet when she said, "On entering this building today, I noticed many of you carrying parcels which, from their bulky nature, appeared to contain banknotes. I also saw radiantly happy faces and I knew, therefore, that this meeting will tell of our success" for it was announced, at the conclusion of the meeting, that a total sum of $47,263.13 had been collected during the campaign. This is over $5,000 in excess of the amount the ladies set as their goal.

There were over 100 ladies present when Mrs. Ma Ying-pui opened the meeting with a prayer.

After Mrs. Kan had welcomed the members, those present were treated to a song and dance by four tiny tots, followed by beautiful rendition of Hawaiian music by the son and two daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Wan Chik-hing.

Another item on the entertainment programme was a physical exercise display by four children who had their heads enclosed in pillow-cases.

The results of the third period of the drive were then announced by the various team leaders.

MRS. SMITH'S ADDRESS

Mrs. N. L. Smith, addressing those present, said, "We have not yet heard which team raised the largest sum but you all know that your goal of $42,000 has been exceeded and that the total is $47,263.13."

"I do not know how to tell you how I admire the splendid arrangements made for the team work. It was due to excellent organisation that such splendid results were obtained. It was also, due to the hard work of the three teams, (Cheers)."

"I really want to say that I congratulate you and I want you to know how happy other people are to know of your success, and how happy I am to share in your success" (Cheers).

Mrs. Smith concluded by wishing the Y.W.C.A. every success during the year.

Mrs. Kan Yau-man said that Mrs. T. V. Soong telephoned her before her (Mrs. Soong's) departure from Hongkong to express her regret at being unable to be present at the meeting due to her departure for Chungking.

THE RESULTS

The results of the campaign were:—
Navy Division led with $16,262.12; Air Force Division came second with $15,250.25; and Army Division with $15,241.25.
Individual teams were headed by Mrs. Wong Tse-chuen with $4,199; with Mrs. Jake Wong Wu, $3,419.40; and Dr. Katherine Woo with $3,269.50, third.

Mrs. Wong Tse-chuen was presented with a home-made cake decorated with a sugar-coated map of China for the leading division, and another cake for the best individual team.
